PRESSURE HERE TO PAY OFF DISK JOCKEYS CALLED TOPS IN MIDWEST

President of Cincinnati Firm Says, However, That Demands of Easterners Were Much Greater.

By a Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 21—Sydney Nathan, president of King Records Inc. here, said today that the pressure for pay-offs to disk jockeys in St. Louis was the heaviest he had encountered in the Midwest.

Nathan, who has admitted making payments to disk jockeys "all over the country" in return for playing records in which his firm was interested, did not give the names of any St. Louis disk jockeys to whom the alleged payments were made.

"The big 'payola' pressure is in the east, but we have paid out all over the country," he told the Post-Dispatch. "St. Louis is the big one in the midwest but the pressure there doesn't compare with the east," he added.

"Let me say this whole business doesn't concern the fine people. Only the lower types ever insisted on a pay-off," Nathan declared in a statement.

Records of Nathan's record company have been subpenaed in the New York investigation of disk jockey pay-offs, known as "payola."

Nathan has said that canceled checks showing pay-offs will be turned over to New York District Attorney Frank Hogan.

Nathan said King Records sells about $3,000,000 worth of records annually and is among the "top 10" of the 4000 firms in the record business. He estimated total annual record sales in the nation at about $400,000,000.

King Records, Nathan said, stopped making pay-offs 18 months ago when he found that such payments had no great effect on sales.

He estimated that only about 200 of the more than 10,000 disk jockeys in the nation were insisting on pay-offs.

PAID THOUSANDS TO DISK JOCKEYS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21 (UPI)—Details of the "payola"—the paying of disk jockeys to plug certain songs—were revealed yesterday by a Philadelphia record distributor. He told of requests for $500 per month per record" and "wall-to-wall carpeting."

Edward D. Cohn, who operates Lesco Distributors, said, however, that only about 20 of the city's 200 disk jockeys expected and received payments, but even this was so costly that it exerted a "strong influence" on his decision to shift his operations away from the "pop" record field.

In describing the practice currently under investigation by a congressional subcommittee, Cohn said it cost him "thousands of dollars to get records played on local radio stations," the amount varying with each disk jockey.

Cohn's company serves southeastern Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey and Delaware. He said the "payola" probably dates back "to the beginning of the

Planes, Ships Waiting in Pacific To Snag Capsule From Satellite

Air Force Says Recovery Would Be Greatest Space Achievement—Odds Against It Are 700 to One.

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif., Nov. 21 (UPI)—A flotilla of naval ships and Air Force C-119 "Flying Boxcars" stood ready today to snatch a Discoverer VIII satellite capsule out of the sky or sea.

Joint sea-air forces were based somewhere in the mid-Pacific near Hawaii in an area called "the ballpark" to recover the parachute-rigged capsule from the satellite circling as far away as 1000 miles from earth.

Discoverer VIII, 78 feet long and weighing 1700 pounds, roared successfully into orbit over a polar route yesterday. It was boosted into space by a Thor ballistic missile and thrust into an orbital velocity of 18,000 miles an hour by a second stage rocket.

With the launching went America's hopes to become the first nation to capture a man-made object from space. Neither the United States nor the Soviet Union, as far as is known, has made such a recovery.

Four earlier attempts were made by the Air Force but failed when the capsules were never sighted after their ejection.

The Discoverer VIII capsule weighs 310 pounds and is 27 inches long and 33 inches in diameter.

Odds were quoted at 700 to 1 against recovery. The feat if successful would be "the most significant achievement to date in space," the Air Force said. It is a necessary step on the path toward orbiting a man into space.

Discoverer VIII was scheduled to release the capsule some 27 hours after yesterday's launching which took place at 1:25 p.m. (St. Louis time). At the time of release, it is to have made 17 passes over the North and South Poles.

Aircraft planned to snag the object from the sky as it parachutes back to earth while ships prepared to pluck it out of the sea. The capsule is designed to float after it strikes the water.

Before the radio-controlled ejection can be accomplished, however, the satellite must be in position and stabilized properly in orbit.

Highlight of the program to recover living organisms from space is expected to be the launching of a primate—probably a monkey—but not until a successful recovery of a capsule is made.

The satellite has achieved the greatest apogee (farthest point away from earth) of any of its predecessors. It has reached 1000 miles away compared with a previous best of 605 miles for Discoverer I. Its perigee is 120 miles with an orbital period of 103 minutes.

URGENT WARNING AGAINST USE OF TRAILER HEATER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP)—The Public Health Service has issued an urgent warning against a kind of bottled gas heater used in hunting and camping trailers. Apparently it has caused eight deaths, officials said.

The heaters are called "Thurm heaters," the Health Service said yesterday, and may bear the model number "8M" or "8MNS." It said a faulty design results in a quick buildup of lethal carbon monoxide in the small trailers in which they are used.

The service said about 2000 of the units, made by the Thurm Engineering Co. of Elkhart, Ind., have been sold and installed in trailers in the last 18 months.

All eight deaths occurred in Michigan. Three were women who slept in a trailer while attending a religious meeting. The other five were hunters camping in the Michigan woods. The Michigan Health Service issued a warning last Monday, and the federal service now has sent warnings to all state health officers.

EXECUTIVES TOLD TO REST OFTEN, DRINK A LITTLE

© New York Times News Service

LONDON, Nov. 21 — British business and industrial executives were advised yesterday to take frequent holidays and possibly a bit of alcohol if they wished to maintain good health.

Advice along these and other lines was given by nine doctors to 700 executives attending a conference here on the health of the business executive. The conference was organized by the Chest and Heart Association.

Executives of shipping lines, oil companies, banks, chemical firms, public utilities and other concerns attended.

Dr. Arthur Levin, medical adviser to Rolls Royce and a shipping concern, said four weeks' holiday a year was essential. Those with great responsibilities should take frequent holidays, he said.

Dr. John Hunt, secretary of the College of General Practitioners, said that for a worried patient with high blood pressure a glass of sherry, a cocktail or whisky and soda before dinner or before going to bed was often excellent treatment.

U.S. AND RUSSIA IN NEW CULTURAL EXCHANGE PACT

Would 'Explore Desirability of Joint Projects' in Peaceful Use of Atom.

MOSCOW, Nov. 21 (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union today signed a new two-year cultural exchange agreement that proposes to "explore the desirability of joint projects" in peaceful use of atomic energy.

The agreement also sets up discussions for direct Moscow-New York air links, provides for radio and television program exchanges, and paves the way for the ultimate sending of the Red Army Chorus to the United States in view of the United States Marine Band's appearance here. The Marines are expected to be here for President Eisenhower's visit.

The agreement, to replace one expiring next month, provides for Americans and Russians to exchange visits in 1960 and 1961 in the fields of art, education, agriculture, industry and science.

Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson signed for the United States in a ceremony at the headquarters of the Soviet state committee for cultural relations with foreign countries. G. K. Zhukov, chairman of the committee, signed for the Soviet Union.

Both said the agreement of the last two years worked out well and the new pact was expected to fulfill hopes of bettering relations between the two countries.

In answer to a question, Zhukov said he is flying to London tomorrow and later to Paris to talk about cultural exchanges with those capitals.

The lengthy document also includes sports events extending into 1962 since so many Olympic events intervene early in 1960.

Both sides made the point that the signed agreement—actually negotiated for the United States by a State Department team headed by Frederick Merrill—makes provisions for continuing negotiations and adding plays,

Does CBS Tell NBC? Yes, It Says It Is Televising Macy's Parade

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—New York's big Thanksgiving day parade, sponsored by Macy's department store and the National Broadcasting Co., is going to get some extra television converage this year from the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Macy's and NBC are unhappy about the situation. However, CBS says the parade is a public event and therefore anyone can televise it. Moreover, CBS is going to have commercial sponsors for its telecast.

NBC has been carrying the event alone since 1945. The network and Macy's regard it as a joint venture. They share in the arrangements.

The NBC coverage this year is sponsored by the Lionel Corp., maker of electric trains and other toys. CBS sponsors are the Remco Industries, Inc., a competing toy firm, and the American Character Doll Corp.

Macy's sent a letter of protest to CBS, but the network said it was going right ahead with its plans to televise the parade along with an occasional switch to others in Philadelphia and Detroit.

Macy's is reported to be seeking ways of halting CBS, possibly by copyrighting some of the music and displays in the parade.

PRESIDENT SEES SECRETARIES OF ARMED SERVICES IN BUDGET FIGHT

Basic Agreement Likely Next Week, Gates Says — Some Research Reported Dropped.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 21 (UPI) — President Eisenhower met for nearly two and a half hours today with the secretaries of the three armed services in an effort to reach inter-service agreement on the big defense budget for the next fiscal year.

Deputy Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates said basic agreement on the defense budget should be possible by late next week.

Gates, acting as spokesman for the secretaries of Army, Navy and Air Force, said the President and his associates still were talking about a military budget in the neighborhood of 41 billion dollars but that a final figure remained to be determined.

In the conference with the President at the Augusta National Golf Club, Gates said the service secretaries talked primarily in terms of basic programs and their "validity" rather than money alone.

Gates tried to discourage the idea that the secretaries were fighting each other for what their services regarded as the proper division of the defense budget.

No Comment From York.

"They believe they had a good, balanced program," he said.

The three secretaries and Dr. Herbert York, director of research and engineering in the Defense Department, got aboard an Air Force transport plane without a word to reporters.

Gates reported that decisions had been reached on dropping certain major research programs to help meet the higher cost of newer weapons.

"We're still pulling the pieces together," he said.

Secretaries Listed.

The service secretaries involved in the budget discussion were Wilber M. Brucker, Army; James H. Douglas, Air Force, and William Franke, Navy. Brig. Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaster, the White House staff secretary, flew to Augusta with the Pentagon delegation.

Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy conferred here Monday with Mr. Eisenhower. A Defense Department spokesman in Washington said McElroy completed his budget talks then and arranged for Gates to represent the Defense Department at today's session.

Gates is expected by many to take over as defense chief when McElroy leaves the Pentagon in the next month or two.

Special Scrutiny.

The military share of the budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 is getting what budget director Maurice H. Stans says is special scrutiny. Mr. Eisenhower already has conferred separately with top echelon Pentagon leaders and the military chiefs of the various armed forces.

Important as the budget was in the present scheme of things, it was forced to compete for Mr. Eisenhower's attention with the planning for his forthcoming 11-nation tour.

Apparently to meet Democratic requests that his trip be made a bipartisan affair, Mr. Eisenhower has invited five Democratic and four Republican leaders from the House and Senate to have breakfast with him in Washington Nov. 30 to discuss the trip. Vice President Richard M. Nixon was not included in the invitation list announced by the White House, and there was no immediate explanation. Those invited—and the White House said most of them had already accepted—were:

House Speaker Sam Rayburn, Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson; House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts; Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois; House Republican Leader Charles H. Halleck of Indiana.

Chairman William J. Fulbright (Dem.), Arkansas, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee; Chairman Thomas E. Morgan (Dem.), West Virginia, of the House Foreign Affairs Committee; Senator Alexander Wiley, Wisconsin, ranking Republican member, Senate Foreign Relations, and Representative Robert B. Chiperfield of Illinois, ranking Republican, House Foreign Affairs.

Soviet Perfume Output.

MOSCOW, Nov. 21 (AP)—The Soviet Union yesterday claimed first place in the world for per capita perfume production. It released 1958 figures showing it made 316,000,000 bottles, including toilet water. It didn't say how big the bottles were.

OVERLAND YOUTH SHOOTS, KILLS 3 AT TROY, MO.; WOMAN IS HIT 17 TIMES

ALFRED CORRADI SUDDENLY OPENS FIRE ON FRIENDS WITH 2 WEAPONS

Drives to Home of His Girl in Jennings and Confesses — Known as 'Fanatic' About Firearms.

Alfred Mario (Pat) Corradi, 18 years old, admitted last night that he shot and killed Mr. and Mrs. Leroy A. Kappel and Mrs. Kappel's sister, Miss Rosetta Willis, at the Kappel home near Troy, Mo.

The shootings occurred yesterday afternoon.

Corradi, who lives with his mother, Mrs. Louise Corradi, at 3 Marvin Gardens, Overland, readily admitted the killings.

Corradi, who is being held in the Lincoln county jail, was charged with first degree murder in warrants issued by Magistrate Owen Robinson of Troy.

Police Chief John Obertz of Jennings, who first took Corradi into custody, quoted the youth as saying:

"I was mad because my girl friend's mother had told her daughter not to go with me anymore."

The youth was referring to Mrs. Pearl Scharfinski and her daughter, Cheryl, of 5452 Jennings road, Jennings. Corradi had been dating Cheryl for several months.

Drives To Their Home.

He drove to the Scharfinski home from Troy, after killing the Kappels and Miss Willis with two revolvers.

Corradi told Chief Obertz that he went to the Scharfinski home intending to shoot Mrs. Scharfinski. The youth lost his nerve, however, the chief reported.

Prosecuting Attorney Peter Grewach of Lincoln county gave the following account of the shootings, based on statements made by Corradi:

Corradi drove out to the Kappel home, which is about eight miles northeast of Troy, bringing with him hamburgers and french fries.

Truck in Ditch.

Kappel's truck was stuck in a ditch near the home and Corradi helped Kappel get it out, the prosecutor said. He continued:

"Corradi went inside the house and into a bedroom, where he changed into a pair of clean trousers. He shot Kappel twice while Kappel was in the bedroom with him and then came out of the bedroom. He was armed with two revolvers.

"He then went to the kitchen, where he shot Mrs. Kappel and Miss Willis. The women apparently had tried to hide from him because each was in a corner of the kitchen."

Mrs. Kappel, who was 18, was shot 17 times, Grewach reported. Miss Willis, who was 17, was shot four times.

Chief Obertz told the Post-Dispatch that he at first doubted Corradi's story that he had killed three people.

The youth replied: "It's true. I killed three people. It won't do you any good to try and help them. I killed three people and they're dead." Corradi then named Mr. and Mrs. Kappel and Miss Willis as his victims.

Fired Abuot 25 Times.

When Obertz persisted in his disbelief, the youth repeated: "I shot them with a thirty-eight and a twenty-two. I fired about 25 times. There's nothing you can do for them."

He agreed to take Obertz to the Kappel home after Obertz promised the youth that he would not have to enter the place and see the bodies.

Obertz said Corradi was shaking all over and crying as he told of the killings.

Authorities in Troy described the killings as apparently senseless.

Although Corradi spoke of being despondent because he could no longer date Cheryl, the youth did not connect his feelings with the killings. He refused to answer specific questions on why he killed the three persons.

After the shootings, Corradi tossed the two revolvers into his automobile, but he left his car at the house and drove away in Kappel's truck. Kappel, who was 23, was an employe of the Wrought Iron Range Co. in St. Louis.

Corradi drove to the Scharfinski home.

Mrs. Scharfinski said Corradi arrived at her home at 4:50 p.m.

DALTON WAITING FOR BLAIR TO ACT IN LONG CASE

Attorney General Says Charges Must Be Instituted by Governor or Prosecutor.

By EDWARD H. THORNTON
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 21—Attorney General John M. Dalton of Missouri and Prosecuting Attorney James T. Riley of Cole county today were awaiting Gov. James T. Blair's decision as to what to do about Missouri Purchasing Agent Elwood Long.

Asked what action his office might take concerning Long's conduct of the state purchasing office, Dalton told the Post-Dispatch:

"Long is an appointee of the Governor. There is nothing our office can do, so far as criminal charges are concerned, unless directed by the Governor, or requested by the prosecuting attorney, to assist in prosecution of charges."

Riley told a reporter:

"The only law violation so far that I know of from reading the newspaper it Long's acceptance of the gift of bed linens and towels. The gift was accepted in Howard county, so venue would lie there.

No Talks Yet.

"I haven't talked to the Governor about the situation yet. Naturally I want to wait until the Governor makes up his mind what he wants to do."

Clyde E. Rogers of Fayette, prosecuting attorney of Howard county, was reported out of town and could not be reached for comment.

Long and his close friend, Wilbur F. Daniels of Fayette, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, are the dominating political figures in Howard and surrounding counties in that section of the state known as "Little Dixie."

Admits Gift.

Long has admitted to the Post-Dispatch that he accepted the gift of bed linens and towels, referred to by Riley, from the registered agent of Karoll's, Inc., of Chicago, a large supplier of dry goods for Missouri institutions.

Gov. Blair repeatedly has said he intends to make his own investigation of Long's conduct of the purchasing agent's office. Blair said, however, he wanted to wait until the Post-Dispatch completed its series of articles resulting from its investigation of Long's office.

Inquiries at Long's office revealed that he awarded a $50,000 contract for electric light bulbs for the state to a disfranchised

PUPILS CLEARED FROM 2 SCHOOLS IN BOMB SCARES

Students at Jennings Junior High School and at Kinloch High School were evacuated from the buildings yesterday after school officials received telephone calls that bombs were "planted" in the schools.

Police searched both buildings, but found no bombs.

The call to Kinloch was received about 12:20 p.m. and the one to the Jennings school about five minutes later. The caller in both cases was said to have a deep muffled, male voice.

About 350 students at Kinloch were out of class for 25 minutes while police searched the building. At Jennings, however, the 440 students got the afternoon off because it took police and firemen almost two hours to cover the building.

KEEPS CONSCIENCE CLEAN

NEWPORT, R.I., Nov. 21 (AP)—Because a Newport man wants to have a clean conscience, this city will have cleaner streets. The man, who is getting relief checks from the city's welfare department, wanted to feel that he was doing something for the city in return.

So he volunteered to become a street sweeper for several hours a day—at no pay.

WEIR CASE TO GO TO COUNTY GRAND JURY IN 10 DAYS

Witnesses in Killing May Not Be Ready Until Dec. 1 Session, Anderson Says.

Evidence in the killing of W. Victor Weir, president of the St. Louis County Water Co., will be presented to the county grand jury within the next 10 days, Prosecuting Attorney Norman H. Anderson announced today.

Anderson said he probably will not be able to have all his witnesses ready until the Dec. 1 session of the jury. Among those he will talk to, he said, is Mrs. Weir.

Weir, who was 57 years old, was shot and killed Thursday morning by Sam Iaconetti, operator of the Club Varsity, 6600 Delmar boulevard, University City. The shooting occurred in Weir's private office on the second floor of the water company building at 8390 Delmar.

Iaconetti, who wounded himself, later told police that he fired the shots because he was being forced out of the restaurant building by the water company.

He had purchased the building

French Solve Louvre Mystery Of Canvas Rolled Up Like Rug

PARIS, Nov. 21 (AP)—A mystery of the Louvre has been solved.

French Culture Minister Andre Malraux told the National Assembly Tuesday there was in the museum a canvas so large it could not be hung and that no one seems to know who painted it or what it depicts.

It is kept rolled up like an unused rug in an attic storeroom. "For years curators have passed it along in their inventories, but no one has seen all of it," curator Germain Bazin told reporters.

Today the Culture Ministry announced it had found an inventory left by Louis Philippe, who became King of France in 1830, identifying the picture as one of Westminster Abbey, done by Jean-Pierre Alaux. It is thought to cover 9600 square feet of canvas.

Also, Maulraux's aids report the museum has another painting by the same artist, of about the same size, showing the interior of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

PEACEFUL USE OF ATOM BLAST IS OPPOSED BY RED SCIENTIST

Professor on U.S. Tour Differs With AEC View—Says Devices Could Be Used by Military.

By RICHARD DUDMAN
A Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21—Russia's chief of peaceful atomic development expressed opposition yesterday to using nuclear explosions for peaceful purposes.

Prof. Vasili S. Yemelyanov gave his views on this and other subjects at a news conference here at the end of a 16-day visit to the United States. He headed a group of nine scientists who toured atomic installations in this country.

"As long as we have nuclear armament we should not have any use of nuclear explosions, because they can be used by the military people for the development of nuclear weapons," he said. "If there are advantages, they should be put off until such time as the danger doesn't exist."

His position conflicted with that of the Atomic Energy Commission, which has been promoting peaceful explosions under the name "Project Plowshare," for such purposes as digging canals and harbors and assisting in mining and petroleum extraction. In the negotiations at Geneva for a nuclear test bar, the United States is seeking an exception for explosions of this kind.

Prof. Yemelyanov said he was giving his own opinion in the matter and did not know what was the current position of his government, since he had been away several weeks.

He said he was impressed with several United States nuclear devices, notably the Enrico Fermi atomic power plant being built near Detroit, which he described as "a very bold engineering design."

He declined to be drawn into a discussion of whether the Soviet Union or the United States is ahead in nuclear development. AEC Chairman John A. McCone, who sat beside him at the news conference, had said last month on his return from a tour of Russian installations, that the United States held a secure lead in three main fields of atomic development.

"I am a scientist, not a football player, and I don't play any card games," he said. "I am just not interested in which country is ahead."

Yemelyanov, who accompanied Premier Khrushchev on his tour of the United States, was likewise full of Russian proverbs.

Asked whether he had seen everything he wanted to in this country, he said there were some additional places he would have liked to have visited but added that the two countries had not reached that stage in their relations.

"We have a saying that 'every vegetable ripens at its own time,'" he said.

He was speaking of a possibility Russian-American collaboration on a huge new atom-smasher when a reporter wanted to know whether he thought it ought to be built in Russia, the United States or some neutral country. He answered:

"We have a saying that 'before you skin a bear you have to catch him.'"

On the disposal of atomic wastes, Yemelyanov said Russia stores all radioactive materials on land, considering that it might be dangerous to dump them into the ocean. McCone said the United States stores high-level wastes and confines ocean dumping to low-level wastes such as contaminated clothing.

McCone disclosed that the Russians and Americans were working out a more ambitious exchange of scientists—visits of 10 to 15 days by teams of three to five scientists from each country in the fields of controlled thermonuclear reactions, reactor development and high energy physics.

FORMER TOP AID TO GOMULKA HAS MINOR POST NOW

WARSAW, Nov. 21 (AP)—Jerzy Morawski, once one of Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka's chief lieutenants, has been assigned to a relatively minor post in the Polish Government.

The official news agency announced last night that Morawski is now a vice chairman of the Highest Chamber of Control. The chamber keeps an eye on administrative and budgetary affairs of the government and makes reports and recommendations to Parliament and the Council of Ministers, but has little direct power of its own.

Informed sources say the 41-year-old Morawski has resigned from the ruling Communist party's Politburo and Central Committee in protest against bringing hard-line economists and politicians back into the government.

Morawski was named to the party heirarchy in the October 1956 upheaval that brought Gomulka to power and introduced a degree of relaxation in Communist Poland.

Although a firm Communist, Morawski was regarded as one of Gomulka's stanch supporters against the Stalinist bloc. Formerly editor of the party newspaper Trybuna Ludu, he was in charge of cultural affairs for the party.

OUSTED EAST SIDE TEACHER LOSES IN APPEAL TO BOARD

A discharged teacher at Lincoln High School in East St. Louis was denied appeal last night on charges of unprofessional conduct, and two other suspended teachers were reinstated after three days of hearings by the East St. Louis Board of Education.

Cleveland H. Chandler was formally dismissed after being found guilty of using lewd language, attempting to seduce a female student, grading pupils in relation to the number of tickets sold to special events and improper use of money collected for special events. Chandler's attorney said the decison would be appealed to circuit court in Belleville.

The two teachers resinstated, Mrs. Camille Dabney and Fred L. Teer, had been charged with grading students in relation to tickets sold to special events. However, the board considered the offenses "remedial" and ordered them to report for reassignment next Wednesday. They had been suspended since Sept. 21.

CAMPAIGN FOR SYMINGTON TO BE STARTED NOV. 30

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 21 (AP) — Friends of Senator Stuart Symington (Dem.), Missouri, have called a meeting for Nov. 30 to open a national Symington for President campaign.

Ralph Martin of Kansas City, president of the first Symington for President Club, Inc. said the club was organized last July and had been waiting for the appropriate time to begin the campaign.

Martin said Representative Charles Brown (Dem.), Missouri, had been invited to speak at the meeting and was being urged to accept the post of national campaign director. Brown toured several states in Symington's behalf in recent weeks.

TRIP TO LAOS WORTH WHILE, DAG HAMMARSKJOLD SAYS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21 (AP)—Dag Hammarskjold, Secretary General of the United Nations, arrived today from a 10-day study in Laos.

"My trip was very much worth while," he said. "We filled in some gaps in our knowledge." He added that some gaps still exist and said:

"I'm having a close collaborator make a four-week economic study there. They are very poor, you know."

Hammarskjold will leave later today for New York.

RED ROCKET WILL VISIT SUN, MIKOYAN TELLS MEXICANS

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 21 (AP)—Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan says Russia is preparing to increase its space missile lead over the United States by launching a rocket "to visit the sun."

Mikoyan, the highest Soviet official ever to appear in a Latin American country, told a dinner given in his honor last night that Russia has surpassed the United States both in the scientific and in economic areas.

"Who gave the United States a monopoly on occupying first place in the world?" he demanded in a shouting, hand-waving speech that drew frequent applause and shouts of "viva."

Mikoyan said that when he first visited America in 1936, "they were very much ahead, no doubt about that. But we have overtaken them."

Mikoyan, here for a 10-day visit during which he is expected to push for more trade with Mexico, implied that Latin American countries no longer have to follow United States leadership.

PARCEL POST RATE INCREASE TO GO IN EFFECT FEB. 1

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP)—Higher rates for parcel post will go into effect Feb. 1—long after the Christmas rush, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield announced today.

The Interstate Commerce Commerce Commission approved the new rates yesterday, saying they would average 17.1 per cent or about $88,000,000 a year.

The Post Office gave as examples of the increase: A 4-pound package for local area delivery will require 28 cents postage instead of 23 cents. The same parcel going from the east coast to the west coast or Hawaii or Alaska will cost $1.02 instead of 87 cents.

THIRD YOUTH CONVICTED OF ASSAULTING GIRL, 16

A verdict of guilty was returned late yesterday against the third of seven youths charged with the rape of a 16-year-old girl last July 7 near the Alton dam. Two other youths were convicted earlier and a fourth has pleaded guilty. Three others remain to be tried.

The jury in the court of Circuit Judge James B. Clemens at St. Charles deliberated for two hours before returning the verdict against George A. J. House Jr., 17 years old. His penalty was fixed at three years in the penitentiary.

The convicted youths were identified by the victim from the witness stand. They also face charges of raping a companion of the 16-year-old girl.

EDWARD E. HILLS DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21 (UPI)—Edward E. Hills, president of Hills Bros. Coffee, Inc., died yesterday in Franklin Hospital after a long illness. He was 65.

Hills had been president of the company since 1935. A native of San Francisco, he was the son of Reuben W. Hills, one of the founders.

U.S.-APPROVED CRANBERRIES IN SHORT SUPPLY

Housewives Warned to Purchase Them Soon — Special Labels Used.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (UPI)—The Government had this advice today for housewives who want laboratory-approved cranberries for Thanksgiving: "Buy them soon because they may run out."

The word came as the Food and Drug Administration announced that it had cleared 1,704,000 more pounds of cranberries, bringing to 8,916,000 pounds the total approved as free of a chemical weed killer that causes cancer in rats.

This supply was far below what generally is on the market at this time.

Government chemists planned to continue their testing over the weekend to make available as many uncontaminated cranberries as possible by Thanksgiving next Thursday.

The industry, meanwhile, announced a "crash program" to recall millions of pounds of fresh and canned cranberries from stores, label the safe ones and get them back on grocers' shelves before the holiday.

Will Be Labeled.

Safe cranberries will be returned to grocers' shelves with labels indicating they have been cleared by Government or private laboratories.

Informed sources said the Government was considering seizing a few more lots of contaminated berries but was waiting to see whether the industry would dump them as part of its new clean-up campaign.

Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson said yesterday it was "entirely possible" that Arthur S. Flemming, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, could have protected the public against contaminated cranberries without touching off a widespread cancer scare. He quickly added that Flemming "had the facts" and "may have been justified. I'm not prepared to judge," Benson said.

Seeks Confidence.

Benson made the statements in opening a campaign to "restore public confidence" in cranberries and boost sales.

In related developments, the FDA said it had not decided yet whether it would grant the cosmetics industry a hearing on the Government order barring the use of 17 coal tar dyes in lipsticks. The order will go into effect Jan. 6 unless a hearing is granted.

The FDA also announced that 182 chemicals have been found safe for use as food additives. Six others, it said, need further study but their use has not been prohibited. They are the coloring materials carbon black, charcoal, titanium dioxide, ultramine blue, oleic acid and linoleic acid.

firm which was not low bidder.

This was the Alpha Distributing Co., Inc., 5131 Easton avenue, St. Louis. Alpha recently filed required reports with the Secretary of State, paid the $50 penalty for having failed to file them earlier, and was reinstated.

Expenses Paid.

Investigation by the Post-Dispatch also has disclosed that a Chicago coffee firm, which was given a $155,300 state contract by Long last February, paid the expenses of Long and the business managers of three state hospitals on a two-day trip to Chicago last March.

The coffee contract was awarded Richheimer Coffee Co. by Long after he eliminated competitive price bidding on coffee. He did so, he said, to save the state money.

U. N. ASKS ALL NATIONS TO PUT OFF A-TESTS

Negative Vote From France — 20 Countries Abstain, Including Britain and U.S.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Nov. 21 (AP)—The United Nations General Assembly appealed to all countries today not to test nuclear weapons while talks are on for the controlled cessation of such tests.

The roll call was 60 to 1 in favor of a resolution sponsored by 24 African and Asian countries. The only "no" came from France, which plans to set off an atomic bomb in the Sahara early next year.

Twenty countries abstained from voting. Among them were Britain and the United States, now discussing controlled cessation of tests with the Soviet Union in Geneva. The Soviet Union voted "yes."

Debate on Hungary Urged.

In another U.N. development, the United States asked the General Assembly to debate the Hungarian question. It backed a similar request made public Wednesday from Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand, U.N. special representative on Hungary.

Soviet delegate Arkady A. Sobolev told a reporter yesterday Munro had no legal right to make such a request. He said "we will object" when the Assembly's 21-nation Steering Committee takes up the matter Monday.

The United States move seemed calculated to spike the Soviet objection and lessen the likelihood of a long procedural debate in the committee.

United States sources said they believed the subject would be put on the Assembly's agenda as requested. This takes a majority vote first in the Steering Committee and then in the 82-nation Assembly.

Letter Signed by Lodge.

Munro's letter and the United States letter, signed by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, were addressed to Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

Lodge recalled that in a resolution passed last year the Assembly declared the United Nation "will continue to be seized of the situation in Hungary," where Soviet forces have remained since suppressing an uprising in 1956.

The same resolution appointed Munro to report on significant developments relating to the carrying out of the Assembly's past decisions on Hungary, which call for the withdrawal of Soviet forces and restoration of human rights.

Munro has made the argument privately that he is authorized to ask for the inscription of items on the agenda because he is a subsidiary organ of the Assembly, and subsiidary organs have such authority.

Sobolev contends Munro is not a subsidiary organ.

14-Mile Parachute Jumper Says He Was Too Busy to Be Scared

Air Force Captain Concentrated on Research Job While He Dropped From 76,400 Feet.

Picture in Everyday Magazine

ALAMOGORDO, N. M., Nov. 21 (AP)—Air Force Capt. Joseph W. Kittinger says his 14-mile parachute jump did not scare him—he was too busy to worry.

Kittinger, a jet pilot turned space-age experimenter, stepped out of a bucket-like balloon gondola at 76,400 feet over White Sands Missile Range this week. The temperature up there was 104 degrees below zero.

He fell at nearly 450 miles an hour for about three minutes. Then, when he was still 12,000 feet in the air, a parachute automatically opened, and he drifted the rest of the way to the desert in six more minutes.

It was another part of the Air Force's continuing effort to help develop equipment to bring men back alive from emergencies on the edge of space.

"I didn't have time to worry," said Kittinger. "I had so many things to do. This was a research job. I wasn't just sitting there thinking about the jump. I was trying to get data we didn't have already."

He said he kept track of the time and altitude "and physiological reactions." He did not elaborate.

He said his pressure suit, equipped with an oxygen system, kept him comfortable "going up and coming down."

Is he in good shape after his big leap? Well, he flew an Air Force T-33 jet trainer from his new station at Wright Air Development Center in Ohio to Holloman Air Force base, just outside Alamogordo, yesterday.

The Air Force Missile Development Center at Holloman is where he was stationed until his move to Wright several months ago. Holloman and the missile center are on White Sands Missile Range.

The jump was Kittinger's forty-first since 1956.

The Air Force said this not only was the highest parachute jump on record but was the highest man ever rode in an open balloon gondola. The sides of the bucket were about four feet high, and it was about four and one-half feet in diameter. There was a gap in the wall for Kittinger to take that first big step.

Balloon ascents, as well as parachute jumps, are old stuff to Kittinger. His first jump was in training for the Air Force's first Operation Man High ascent. That was in a sealed metal gondola in 1957. He rose to 96,000 feet to learn more about equipment to carry man into space. For that feat he got the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Kittinger, who has a German-born wife, Pauline, and two boys, Joe III, 7 years old, and Mark, 4, at home in Dayton, O., is attached to the escape section of Wright Air Development Center. He more or less commutes by jet fighter between Wright and Holloman for test work.

What does he think of setting a new jump record?

"The results are very gratifying," he said. "I have a great deal of pride about this. But as for it being a world's record, that's 'way down the list in my consideration."

POLARIS MISSILE TO BE FIRED FROM SIMULATED SHIP

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla., Nov. 21 (UPI)—The Navy's Polaris missile, now back on the success trail, will be fired next month from a jiggling tube based at the cape, informed sources reported today.

The tube, known as the "ship motion simulator," imitates the motions of a sea-going vessel while firing the Polaris, whose operational version will be launched from submerged submarines.

The simulator has been used once, in a successful shot of an earlier test model of the Polaris.

The third Polaris 900-mile missile flew successfully yesterday to an impact area near Puerto Rico. The missile was launched from a stable pad.

The two-stage, 28-foot-long rocket thus ended a string of three failures that began after the first of the advanced models was fired successfully Sept. 21.

12,947 WORKERS TO BE RECALLED BY AUTO PLANTS

Action Next Week Will Cut Unemployment in Industry to About 202,873.

DETROIT, Nov. 21 (UPI)—The automobile industry will recall 12,947 more workers next week as new steel supplies begin to filter into parts and accessory plants. The recalls will drop the total unemployment in the automobile industry because of shortages caused by the steel strike to about 202,873.

The number of layoffs was boosted to 215,810 yesterday when Chrysler Corp. was forced to lay off 2650 workers because of shortages. It had only 7780 unemployed at the beginning of the week but was forced to close its Valiant assembly lines during the week, making 2700 idle in addition to the layoffs yesterday.

General Motors reported more than 213,000 workers idle at the beginning of the week but that figure was down to 200,000 by midweek.

Ford said 2500 of its employes made idle by steel shortages at a foundry and two engine plants near Cleveland would resume work next week, although some of its workers would have an "extended two-day holiday" for Thanksgiving on Thursday and Friday next week. The recall will put Ford back up to full strength, however, as far as all of its workers being employed at least part of the week is concerned.

All of General Motors' assembly lines were still closed but continued progress in the supply plants might enable some of them to open in another two or three weeks.

The Valiant, Imperial and Dodge truck assembly lines of Chrysler Corp. were the only other ones closed by steel shortages. Ford layoffs all came in supplier plants, and American Motors and Studebaker-Packard were able to avoid layoffs.

Kremlin Luncheon for Toure.

MOSCOW, Nov. 21 (AP)—Soviet President Klementi Voroshilov gave a Kremlin luncheon yesterday for Guinea's President Sekou Toure. Top Soviet leaders were present with the exception of Premier Khrushchev, who is on vacation in the south.

ROBBERS WOUND GROCER ON WAY OUT, RETURN AND STEAL HIS MONEY

Two Holdup Men Leave When Dog Bounds at Them — Undetermined Amount of Cash Missing.

William J. Wittcoff, a grocer, was shot in the left thigh last night in a holdup at his store, 2500 Marcus avenue.

Wittcoff told police he was alone in the store at 7 p.m. when two men entered displaying revolvers. Wittcoff called to his German shepherd dog, which bounded from a rear room, snarling at the armed men.

One robber fired two shots at the dog but missed. The two men then turned toward the door. As they were leaving, Wittcoff tried to slam the door, but one man held it open while the second reached inside and shot Wittcoff in the thigh.

Wittcoff limped toward a rear room to get his shotgun. The men, Negroes, re-entered the store, grabbed an undetermined sum from the cash register and fled. Wittcoff, 65 years old, is in Homer G. Phillips Hospital. He lives at 6252 South Rosebury avenue, Clayton.

Robbery Suspect Arrested.

In another case a holdup suspect was arrested yesterday following a chase in which a policeman fired three shots.

William J. Clark, 7106 Cheshire lane, Affton, driver of a brewery truck, was robbed of $183 by three men after making a delivery in the 4200W block of Easton avenue. The robbers, all Negroes, fled through an areaway.

A short time later Patrolman Jerry Smith, operator of a one-man car, saw three men answering the description of the robbers walking in the 4200W block of North Market street. Seeing the officer, the men fled through an areaway, with Smith in pursuit on foot.

Smith fired two warning shots in the air and one shot at the fugitives. One man jumped a fence but was overtaken in a yard and arrested. He denied participating in the holdup of Clark.

Confectionery Holdup.

Mrs. Louise Zahl was held up in her confectionery at 4620 Macklind avenue yesterday by a youth armed with a knife. He threatened to cut her throat. The robber fled with $60.

Benjamin Weinshelbaum, operator of a grocery at 4069 Lincoln avenue, was robbed of about $100 yesterday by two men who ordered soft drinks, then held him up at revolver point. The robbers also stole several bottles of liquor.

Fred Brown, 4728 Lexington avenue, was held up in the 5800 block of Delmar boulevard by two men, who fled with $40. Brown said the men threatened him, but displayed no weapons.

James T. Blair III, son of Gov. Blair, reported to police yesterday that a pair of golf shoes and sport clothing valued at $150 and a $200 wristwatch were stolen from his car in the 900 block of Franklin avenue while he was in a restaurant last Oct. 23. Blair lives at 324 Spoede road, Creve Coeur.

Vincent Gualdoni, manager of the restaurant in the Concord Bowl, 11801 Tesson Ferry road, reported to police that he was robbed of $465 last night.

He said a holdup man accosted him when he entered a storage room near the building and thrust an object against his back. The man took his billfold and fled, Gauldoni said. Gauldoni lives at 10466 Spring Garden drive, Bissell Hills.

DR. JOHN J. ROMERO DIES; DENTIST HERE FOR 30 YEARS

Dr. John J. Romero, a practicing dentist here for more than 30 years, died yesterday of heart disease at his home, 7055 Forsyth boulevard, University City.

Dr. Romero was 61 years old and formerly was Nicaraguan consul in St. Louis. Born in Nicaragua, he attended St. Louis University School of Dentistry and was graduated in 1923. For many years he was an active member of the University City Chamber of Commerce.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyle Romero, a member of an old St. Louis family, two sons, John J. Romero Jr. and Richard Boyle Romero; a daughter, Mrs. Richard J. Schilling and six grandchildren.

Scene of Killings, Weapons

yesterday. She told the Post-Dispatch:

"He came in the door, sat down in a chair, held his head in his hands and started crying.

"He asked for my daughter. I told him she was at dancing school and wouldn't be home until about 5:30. He said he had to talk to her." Corradi and Miss Scharfinski had been dating for some time, Mrs. Scharfinski said.

Corradi repeated that "I must see Cheryl right away," Mrs. Scharfinski related. "I invited him to stay for dinner and he left to pick up my daughter," the mother said.

When Corradi and the girl returned, he again began crying, Mrs. Scharfinski said.

"Then he told us what he had done. I said I couldn't believe it," the mother related.

She quoted Corradi as saying: "It's true. You'll find them out there. It's true. I don't want to live any more. I don't know what to do. I don't know why I killed anyone or why it had to be them."

Corradi begged Mrs. Scharfinski not to call his mother, but Mrs. Scharfinski insisted. Mrs. Corradi arrived a short time later with a friend of Corradi, Luther Johnson. They were joined later by other relatives of the Corradis.

Corradi stayed in a bedroom of the Scharfinski home while his mother was there because he did not want to face her, Mrs. Scharfinski said.

"We all discussed what Al said he had done and we decided the only thing to do was call the police," she continued.

Jennings police arrived and Corradi told them what he had done. They took him to the police station.

Mrs. Scharfinski said Corradi and Kappel had been friends since boyhood. Mr. and Mrs. Kappel had visited Corradi and his mother last Sunday.

Corradi told police officers that he could not tell them how to get to the Kappel home, but he could lead them there.

Before leaving for Troy, Police Chief Obertz radioed the Missouri Highway Patrol. The bodies were found by state troopers.

A small arsenal of weapons was found in Corradi's automobile, which was parked in front of the Kappel home. Among the weapons were a rifle, a bayonet, two knives, a large amount of ammunition, two revolvers and a blackjack.

Police were told that Corradi was a "fanatic" about weapons and that he spent almost all his money on guns and bullets.

The youth was still being questioned this morning by Sheriff Melvin Starkey of Lincoln county. Corradi has remained calm during periods of questioning.

The youth had been employed as a laborer on construction projects in St. Louis. Troy is about 60 miles northwest of St. Louis.

3 IN FAMILY KILLED IN CAR-TRUCK CRASH

Three members of one family were killed near Boonville yesterday when their automobile collided head on with a tractor-trailer driven by William H. Plough, 9846 Music road, Sappington.

Killed were Airman Ralph D. Bennett, 21 years old, of Rifle, Colo.; his wife, Eileen, 20, and their son, Ralph D. Bennett Jr., 4 months old. Plough, 29, a driver for Anheuser-Busch, Inc., suffered serious injuries and was taken to St. Joseph Hospital in Boonville.

The Missouri Highway Patrol said the accident occurred on U.S. Route 40, about 16 miles west of Boonville. The left side of Bennett's car was sheared off and the truck went down an embankment at the side of the road. Boonville is about 150 miles west of St. Louis.

Sheryl Meinardi, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Meinardi of Gillespie, Ill., was in St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis, today with head injuries and a fractured nose suffered in a traffic accident Thursday night.

The accident occurred when an automobile in which she was riding, driven by her grandfather, Carl Kaeseman of Gillespie, struck a concrete divider on Veterans Memorial Bridge. Kaeseman said the car's brakes failed. He and Mrs. Meinardi were treated at the hospital and released.

$11,700 UNITED FUND GIFT BY BIEDERMAN

Contributions totaling $11,700 have been received by the United Fund from Biederman Furniture Co. and its employes, it was announced yesterday.

Bruce Schwartz, general manager of the company's main store said the gift was a 24 per cent increase over last year's contribution. Employes donated an average of $16.96 in the drive, he added.

Schwartz, who served as chairman of the Biederman drive, said members of four labor organizations participated in the company's campaign. The unions are Teamsters Local 709, Retail Clerks Local 655, Building Services Local 50 and Furniture Finishers Local 980.

St. Louis county government personnel contributed $8278 to the United Fund drive for support of 122 health, welfare and youth-serving agencies, Supervisor James H. J. McNary reported.

McNary said county employes increased their gift by 58 per cent over last year's donation. "Much of the credit for the campaign's success," McNary said, "should be given to County Auditor Donald Schneider, who took a very active part in the drive."

CORONER, POLICE INSIST FREUTEL WAS A SUICIDE

Reinvestigation Bears Out Original Finding in Banker's Death, They Say.

County Coroner Raymond I. Harris and Kirkwood Police Chief Max A. Durbin said last night that their reinvestigation into the death of Guy S. Freutel had substantiated their original finding of suicide.

Asked if the case was closed, Harris said:

"We never consider a case completely closed. However, we have done all we can do. I am satisfied in my mind as well as in my heart that this is suicide."

At a press conference, Harris, Durbin and their investigators disputed point by point the questions raised by private investigators who cast doubt on the suicide theory.

Freutel was found dead last Aug. 29 in the basement of his home at 1313 Forest lane, Kirkwood. There was a broken length of clothesline around his neck. The other end of the rope was fastened to a hook in a joist of the basement ceiling. No notes were found.

'Conflict Between Doctors.'

The death was termed a suicide by Harris. Later, members of the family hired private investigators who exhumed the body for an autopsy. They found bruises on the face and body and other evidence that led them to doubt that Freutel had taken his own life.

Dr. Eugene Tucker, the coroner's physician, said his reexamination of the body showed no microscopic evidence of bruises. Noting that the privately hired pathologists had described what they found on the body as bruises, Dr. Tucker said, "here we have a conflict between two doctors. He goes his way and we go ours."

A laceration found in the middle of Freutel's forehead at the hairline was superficial, Dr. Tucker said. The physical facts indicate that he suffered the wound when the rope broke and he pitched forward, striking his head on the floor of the basement, the physician added.

Commenting on the fact that no deep hemorrhages were found in Freutel's neck, Dr. Tucker said "such injuries are frequently not found in persons known positively to have died of suicidal hanging."

Both Harris and Dr. Tucker disputed the suggestion that Freutel could not have hanged himself because the body was not clear of the floor. Harris said it would be "very unusual" to find a suicidal hanging in which the victim's legs were off the ground.

"I have seen cases where persons hanged themselves from a doorknob," the coroner said, "and some even hanged themselves from a couch."

Theory on Bloodstains?

Capt. Carl Haley of the Kirkwood police department said evidence of blood spots found in the Freutel home had nothing to do with the death.

The former owner of the house told police of at least two instances in which members of his family were accidentally injured and walked through the house dripping blood, Haley said.

CHURCH BUILDING FUND PROMOTER GETS SIX YEARS

Chicagoan Convicted of Stealing $1469 — Served Champagne in Costly Suite.

Claude J. Murphy of Chicago, whose smooth talking and free spending impressed trustees of the Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church last summer, was found guilty yesterday of stealing $1469 from the church's building fund.

A jury in Circuit Judge William E. Buder's court returned the verdict after eight minutes' deliberation. Judge Buder fixed Murphy's punishment at six years in the penitentiary under the habitual criminal act.

Murphy, who is 33 years old, has served prison terms in Illinois for armed robbery and conspiracy to defraud.

The Rev. L. P. O'Hara, pastor of the church at 1401 Carr street, testified that he and other church leaders, including Sixth Ward Alderman Archie Blaine, chairman of the church's trustees, met with Murphy several times last August.

The richly dressed Murphy identified himself as a representative of the "Intercontinental Development Foundation" and offered to help the church in its drive to raise a $250,000 building fund, the Rev. Mr. O'Hara said.

Champagne and Cadillac.

In the course of the negotiations, church members were invited to Murphy's $57-a-day suite at the Chase Hotel, where they enjoyed cocktails, champagne, scotch and hors d'oeuvres. They also admired Murphy's 1959 Cadillac.

Convinced of Murphy's fund-raising skill, the minister testified, the trustees approved a deposit of $5000 in church funds in a downtown bank.

Murphy and Blaine were authorized to make withdrawals to promote fund-raising activities, including Bible singing programs at Kiel Auditorium.

The $5000 was deposited last Aug. 17. On the same day, it was testified, Murphy wrote a check for $1469 to pay his rapidly mounting hotel bill.

Meanwhile, police had taken note of Murphy's activities, and shortly after the bill was paid, detectives arrested him.

ON DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

Edward D. Weakley, an attorney, has been named by the St. Louis County Democratic Central Committee to the unexpired term of George Cloyd as Democratic committeeman for Clayton Township, it was announced yesterday.

Weakley, 2 Oakleigh lane, Ladue, will serve until the August primary election next year. Cloyd recently resigned.

TEEN-AGE BURGLARY RING BROKEN, 7 HELD

Police of the Penrose District broke up a gang of youthful burglars last night with the arrest of five juveniles and two 17-year-old boys.

In their investigation, the officers also solved the $500 safe robbery of a market at 2631 St. Louis avenue and returned most of the money before the owner knew it was gone.

Police said a wave of early evening house burglaries has occurred in the Penrose District in the last six weeks. Their break in the case came Wednesday night when burglars entered a house in the 2500 block of Hebert street.

A neighbor reported he saw two boys run away from the house and heard one say, "Come on, Ted, let's get out of here."

Detectives knew a 16-year-old boy named Ted who has a juvenile record as a burglar. They brought him in for questioning. He denied knowledge of the burglaries at first, but later confessed and implicated six others.

Police will turn over those, who range from 14 to 16 years old, to juvenile authorities. The others arrested are Bill H. McMahan, 17, of the 1200 block of Wright street, and Donald Lee Moss, 17, of 4007 North Eleventh street.

While working on the case yesterday, Detectives Joseph McNew and Floyd Lindsey noticed two youths acting suspiciously at the intersection of Nineteenth street and St. Louis avenue. When the officers approached, the boys got into a taxicab and tried to flee.

The detectives stopped the boys and discovered they had $100 in their possession. Also they had run up a $37 taxicab bill.

Under questioning, the youths, one 15 and the other 16, said they worked after school at a market at 2631 St. Louis avenue. They said they saw the owner, Morris Cohen, put some money in a safe and fail to lock the safe on Wednesday. They took the money when Cohen was not looking, they said.

FOUR CAPTURED IN CHASE AFTER COUNTY HOLDUP

Arrested 15 Minutes After Robbing Business Man Outside Creve Coeur Home.

Four men were arrested by St. Louis county police last night 15 minutes after they robbed Julius Hyken of $100 and jewelry valued at $700 outside his residence at 8 Spoede Acres, Creve Coeur.

Hyken, owner of the Star Drug Co. at 2600 Olive street, said he had just driven into his driveway at about 11 p.m. when he was accosted by the intruders. They forced him to stand against the wall, holding what he thought was a knife at his back.

After taking his money, a wristwatch valued at $300, a diamond ring valued at $400, his spectacles, keys and other articles, the men fled in an automobile. Hyken telephoned police.

Creve Coeur and county police set up road blocks and began searching for the car, a description of which was broadcast. County Patrolman Sherril Ledbetter saw the car going south on Ballas road and gave chase.

The automobile was overtaken and halted on Manchester road a half mile east of Highway 141. County Police Sgt. Edward Lorenz said the occupants admitted robbing Hyken.

The men identified themselves as Waylon F. Merriweather, 21 years old, of the 2200 block of Cass avenue; John F. Jefferson, 22, of the 5000 block of Cates avenue; William Powell, 24, of the 3600 block of Page boulevard, and Dewey A. Sharp of the 1900 block of O'Fallon street.

Hyken's possessions were recovered, Lorenz reported. Hyken said Sharp was a former employe of his.

Train Hits Car, Man Killed.

BOWMANVILLE, Ont., Nov. 21 (UPI)—A Canadian Pacific passenger train struck an automobile at a level crossing near Newcastle, Ont., today. The driver and only occupant of the car was killed. One coach of the train was derailed.

Letters from the People

From a Railroader

I have been employed by a railroad for 14 years as a "featherbedding" firemen. You state that useless employes on Diesel freight and yard engines would be eliminated. You mean firemen.

Do you know that the railroad I work for requires a fireman to pass a rigid written and oral test on the mechanical, electrical and air (brakes) parts of a Diesel locomotive? If the fireman fails to pass this test, after two successive attempts, he is automatically discharged.

Wouldn't you say that this is an admission by the railroad that a fireman's job is indispensable?

In regard to your reference to an 18-hour, 40-minute run costing 20.9 days' pay, I do not believe today that an airline pilot is required to pilot a plane over so many hours for a given amount of pay and neither should an engineer of a fast-moving passenger train.

The reason for many of these "featherbedding" rules is simply that employes were abused before the rule was established. As an example, before the initial terminal rule was made, an engine crew might have had to wait from one to five hours at no compensation before starting its road trip. The same thing could occur when a crew was held out of a freight terminal yard because of too much traffic in the yard. Even under the existing rules, an engine crew can be held one hour and 15 minutes in freight service, without any compensation, before its train is made up.

Is there any employe in your concern who works the first one hour and 15 minutes frequently for no compensation at all?

Let me summarize this, by stating that some railroads may be in dire financial circumstances but not because of overpaid and underworked employes. The railroads have doubled and sometimes trebled the length of their trains. This makes for more revenue, but talk to any shipper and he will tell you that damage to the freight he has shipped is why he is reluctant to use rail service. This damage is caused mostly by slack action of those 100- to 200-car freight trains.

Aid for Volunteers

The hospitals are asking for volunteers. Many of us would not mind volunteering if they would at least give us our lunch. They require certain types of uniforms which we must buy, and also we have carfare to pay. So I think it isn't asking too much of the hospital to give the volunteers their lunch free. A Would-Be Volunteer

Maintaining a Balance

Whenever land is taken away from a park, equivalent land should be provided elsewhere in the city.

Thus when the state proposes to take 29 acres from the corner of Kingshighway and Forest Park, the cost of that land as measured by the cost of land adjacent to it should be given to the city, plus the cost of demolishing buildings someplace else, and the price of those buildings.

In order to obtain equivalent park property elsewhere in the city no doubt it will be necessary to condemn high-value land with buildings on it. The price will be high. Surely it is only equitable for the State Highway Department to reimburse the citizens in this manner.

I heartily indorse the proposal by the president of Landmarks, Inc., published in this column Nov. 3. Indeed it seems the minimum requisite inasmuch as it doesn't call for paying the price of buildings which would have to be acquired for suitable park sites, but only refers to land costs. Edward L. Ullman

Mess in the Courthouse

Relative to the 1959 county tax bills, I had occasion recently to call at the Assessor's office to question several tax notices on personal property sent to several members of my family.

There were glaring errors on all of the notices and judging from complaints of other property owners at the counter when I was in the office the 1959 personal bills are really in a mess. If the records on the real estate bills are as hopeless as the personal bills I think that it is high time the county retained a corps of accountants to attempt to make some sense of the records in the Assessor's office.

Regardless of the fault of whatever department it is high time that some semblance of reasonable efficiency in this serious matter be worked for immediately. Do I hear a second? Abe Comanche

The Unreliable Guide

We advise both parties against selecting their presidential nominees next year on the basis of historical precedent. A closer look at some of the taboos which politicians like to set up shows that they seldom have a strong historical foundation.

Consider the argument that a Catholic should not be nominated because history shows he could not be elected—an argument frequently advanced against Senator Kennedy. As a matter of fact, only one Catholic has ever tried, and that was Alfred E. Smith in 1928. He lost to Herbert Hoover at the height of the big boom, by an electoral vote of 444 to 87. The landslide was so great that, quite obviously, no candidate of whatever religious faith could have beaten Hoover. Al Smith was defeated by prosperity, not by his religion.

Or take the argument often advanced against Adlai E. Stevenson, that a two-time loser should not be nominated because history shows he could not be elected. As a matter of fact, there are only two precedents, and unique circumstances marked each of them.

Henry Clay ran in 1824, 1832 and 1844, and lost each time; but his third race was run after a 12-year interval, when he was a declining political force. William Jennings Bryan was defeated in 1896, 1900 and 1908; but his third defeat came at the hands of William Howard Taft, who was actively supported by the popular Theodore Roosevelt. Bryan, furthermore, had always been a divisive force in the Democratic party whereas Stevenson has been a unifying force. Neither the Clay nor the Bryan precedent means much in 1960.

If anybody needs to worry about precedent, it is Richard M. Nixon. For not since 1836, when Andrew Jackson handpicked and elected Martin Van Buren as his successor, has a sitting Vice President succeeded in being elevated to the presidency except by the President's death. The pages of American history are strewn with the names of Vice Presidents who did not become President by election—Barkley, Wallace, Garner, Curtis, Dawes, Marshall, Fairbanks, Adlai E. Stevenson the first, Levi P. Morton, William A. Wheeler, Colfax, Hamlin, Breckenridge, Dallas, Richard M. Johnson.

And yet Mr. Nixon, too, can take some comfort from the record when read in just the right way. If no Vice President since 1836 has been elected President in his own right, the reason may be that no Vice President has been allowed to try. Of all the Vice Presidents in the past 124 years, not one has been nominated by his party for the No. 1 office. If Mr. Nixon could become the first Vice President to win a presidential nomination, he might also become the first to win elevation at the polls.

On the whole, the best course for both parties is to choose their nominees on the basis of 1960 circumstances and issues, and not by a troubled effort to read the past.

End of the Edsel

The Ford Motor Co. introduced its Edsel with a great fanfare some 28 months ago. Now it has taken the unusual step of announcing it is discontinuing production of the automobile after selling only 110,000 units. What happened? Despite advertising claims, the Edsel looked to the public just like another auto, no better and no worse than any other in its price class. This despite the fact that, according to the ballyhoo, the car had been designed by the public itself, through a massive opinion survey. Evidently the polls do not take the place of ideas in automobile design any more than in politics.

Had Ford spent the 50 million dollars it cost to develop the Edsel on production of a high-quality compact car, it might now be way ahead of its big-three competitors in the smaller-car field. One secret of the success of the imported autos is that the buyer is offered an almost infinite variety of size, price and performance. American manufacturers are belatedly realizing the public will not accept any longer what is essentially only one automobile.

The County's Police Problem

The remarks by the president of the County Police Board on its revenue needs are a timely reminder that the whole county police situation demands much more attention and leadership from Supervisor McNary and the Council than it has been getting.

Board President Frank P. Aschemeyer's conclusion that the county force must have a new source of revenue in order to operate efficiently touches on one of the county's two principal police problems—equitable sharing of costs. The other involves the basic question of adequacy of police service throughout the county.

The County Police Department now is more of a financial burden on many county residents than it necessarily should be. This is because its activities are limited to the county's unincorporated areas. Taxpayers in the municipalities support it through a general property tax; they also are required to support whatever police activities are carried on within their own towns. In effect, most county residents are paying for two police forces but enjoying service and protection from only one.

Police protection in the county as a whole is extremely spotty. The County Department does a first-rate job, as do several of the forces in the 59 municipalities that have their own. But many of the municipal forces are inadequate, in part at least because their communities are too small to support them adequately. There are no centralized communications and reporting facilities for the whole area. The county is ripe for an invasion by organized crime.

The Metropolitan St. Louis Survey recommended that the County Department be authorized to police both the unincorporated areas and the 72 communities with populations under 4000—the ones that do not have sufficient tax resources to handle the job on their own. The 26 larger cities would continue to operate their own departments and, where they met minimum standards established by the county, would receive refunds from the county for furnishing this service.

A county-wide tax of 25 cents would support this kind of arrangement, the Survey estimated. Everybody would pay this levy, but those communities operating forces meeting minimum standards would receive refunds from the county police fund. In most cases this would permit the municipalities to reduce their own tax rates by substantially more than the 25-cent rate levied to support the county police.

A great many legal and other problems stand in the way of achieving the Survey's arrangement. But they are not necessarily insurmountable, especially if Mr. McNary and the Council took the lead in solving them. A reasonable first step might be the appointment of a small, competent bipartisan committee to examine the legal barriers and to blueprint a reasonable plan for hurdling them. Failure to act now will have costly repercussions later.

Squeeze on India

It would be surprising if Prime Minister Nehru's proposal to create a no man's land in the disputed border area between India and Red China were acceptable to Premier Chou En-lai. Mr. Nehru's terms would require the Chinese to evacuate an area in Ladakh which they have occupied and which India claims. The area is traversed by a road linking western Tibet with the Chinese province of Sinkiang.

Since no solution appears imminent, the border clash and its meaning will doubtless be discussed when President Eisenhower visits India next month. Viewed in its worst light, the dispute is of the utmost seriousness, and it is heartening to see evidence that the State Department is aware of India's position and is taking steps to help. The appointment of C. Tyler Wood, one of the Government's most experienced economic aid administrators, as co-ordinator of foreign aid operations in India was a sound move. Others may be necessary if India is to receive the assistance necessary to assure success of its five-year plans and its economic race with Communist China.

A disquieting aspect of China's expansionist policy is that it may well be designed not as the start of military aggression against India but as the beginning of a subtler scheme to damage Indian economic plans and Mr. Nehru. For years Mr. Nehru complained that by furnishing military aid to Pakistan the United States was forcing India to spend money on arms that it otherwise would put into economic development. If fear of China now forces further Indian arming at the expense of economic programs, an obvious Chinese objective would be attained. The Indian operating margin is so slim that the country cannot afford to withdraw any funds from economic projects; indeed, it probably will need additional aid from the United States and other western powers just to complete current plans.

If India's industrial and agricultural progress could be retarded through Chinese pressure, Mr. Nehru would be weakened and Communists would find political gains easier. The Chinese Communists can afford a long period of threat and bluster; the West must make clear that it intends to support Indian democracy with every resource at its command.

'Yes' Ought to Mean Yes

The seven Justices of the Illinois Supreme Court have before them a question of unusual public interest. Should a citizen have his ballot counted if he wrote the word "Yes" on it as recommended, in effect, in a "Vote Yes" campaign in behalf of a proposed amendment to the Illinois State Constitution?

Just a year ago an amendment to improve the outmoded judicial system of Illinois received approximately the required two-thirds majority at the polls. But on the basis of the counted ballots it fell short seemingly by some 29,000. Only ballots marked with a cross in the "For" square were counted as favorable. A check mark in the "For" square was held to void the ballot, as was the word "Yes" written in by the voter.

When the amendment failed by this narrow edge, the rejection of these ballots was taken to court. A circuit judge ruled that only ballots with a cross in the proper square could be counted. Last week in arguments before the Illinois Supreme Court counsel for a group of taxpayers contended that the Illinois law allows all ballots to be counted if the marking is such as to make the intent of the voter plain.

It is for the Illinois Supreme Court to interpret the law and to apply it in this case. Surely if the law allows an interpretation so sensible, reasonable men will find it in the language. Courts frequently look for intent in the mind of the legislator. It would seem no more unreasonable for laws and appliers of the law to seek to sustain the plain intent of the voter whenever that is clear.

Late Starter Takes the Field

For several months supporters of the Governor of New Jersey have been sniffing the breeze of public opinion and asking the question, "What's the matter with Meyner?" For some inexplicable reason Mr. Meyner, once widely discussed as a Democratic presidential possibility, slipped from view. With the benefit of these soundings, and observing that the Democrats still have not surfaced a sure-winning candidate, Mr. Meyner has tossed his hat in the direction of the ring.

It can hardly be said that the earth shook when the Governor made a major speech in Cambridge, Mass. He called for a return of "dynamic, responsible leadership" in the White House, a cry that sounds a bit familiar. He charged that under President Eisenhower six regulatory agencies — FCC, FTC, FPC, FAA, SEC and ICC—had gone to the dogs, a standard indictment for Democratic orators to make. He blamed the White House and the FCC for the current plight of the television industry. Without taking a position on the merits of Mr. Meyner's views, one wonders how he hopes to overtake the leaders at this late date and in the apparent absence of a program to catch the public fancy.

Mark Twain in Russia

The Russians apparently are trying to read political significance into the editing of the latest edition of the autobiography of Mark Twain, claiming "official" America is "trying to forget" the humorist. That is the view, at least, of a Soviet critic in the leading Russian literary organ. But in this case the Russians have had the good grace to offer Charles Neider, editor of the autobiography, a chance to reply, and Mr. Neider is pointing out there is no official United States Government line on Mark Twain, or any other writer. Mark Twain is the most popular American author in Russia, but we wonder how much his writings have contributed to Russian understanding of this country if the Soviet critic could hold the ideas advanced in his article.

St. Louis Art Museum: Notable City Asset

More Than 500,000 People Annually Visit Its Store of Artistic Treasures

Charles Nagel,
Director, City Art Museum, in Museum News

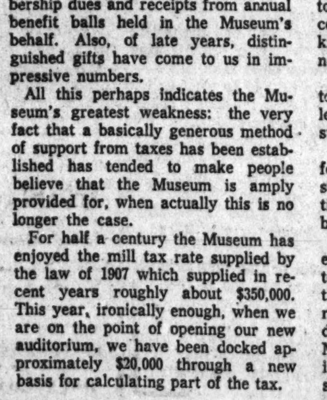
The Mirror of Public Opinion

On March 7, 1907, the General Assembly of the State of Missouri enacted the Art Museum Law of the State of Missouri, one of the most enlightened and far-sighted pieces of legislation ever to be passed in the United States in connection with the operation of public art museums. It is not a lengthy document nor a complicated one. The essential features are that any city of 400,000 inhabitants in the State of Missouri may, by petition of 100 taxpayers, ask that a tax of one-fifth of a mill to the dollar on all taxable property in such city be levied for the establishment, maintenance or extension of a museum of art for the benefit of its citizens.

Under its provision the City Art Museum has flourished for 50 years. The growth of the Museum during that time from nothing more than an empty building to one of the top half dozen institutions of its kind in the country affords ample justification for the liberality of the originating law.

It would seem, then, that the City Art Museum of St. Louis has few problems in the execution of its duties. A handsome building, outstanding collections, a program of public instruction that was a pioneer in its field and last year reached a total of 104,563 compared with a total audience of 527,669.

What more could one want? Well, let us confess it, there are rifts in the lute of our basis for support, and actually there are few areas of a museum's responsibility that our finances have permitted us to place on a really proper foundation.



DEDICATED TO ART AND FREE TO ALL

Fortunately, with the establishment of the Friends of the Museum some seven years ago, funds for purchase have been supplemented through membership dues and receipts from annual benefit balls held in the Museum's behalf. Also, of late years, distinguished gifts have come to us in impressive numbers.

All this perhaps indicates the Museum's greatest weakness: the very fact that a basically generous method of support from taxes has been established has tended to make people believe that the Museum is amply provided for, when actually this is no longer the case.

For half a century the Museum has enjoyed the mill tax rate supplied by the law of 1907 which supplied in recent years roughly about $350,000. This year, ironically enough, when we are on the point of opening our new auditorium, we have been docked approximately $20,000 through a new basis for calculating part of the tax.

St. Louis is unfortunately passing through a difficult phase financially, one in which dollars for any purpose are none too plentiful. The city is meeting this crisis with courage and vision. It has voted to tax itself to the tune of 110 millions for capital improvements to existing civic institutions and for a new public works program of an extensive nature. In this bond issue program the City Art Musuem was awarded one million dollars, with which it is constructing its new auditorium.

But it can hardly be expected that the Art Museum can benefit by a capital bond issue every five years or so. Therefore the Trustees voted to have a plan prepared which would fill our reasonable needs over the next twenty-five years.

What are the future objectives of our Museum?

1. The reconditioning of our present structure in line with contemporary needs.

2. Additions to our existing building to house properly both the present collections and also those that are known to be coming to us within the next ten to twenty years.

3. The securing of funds necessary to put on a first-rate program of leisure-time activities and public instruction in our new auditorium.

4. The securing of funds essential for recruitment of a staff of the requisite size and professional qualifications to care for and to exploit to the best advantage our collections.

5. The securing of funds needed to establish a pension plan to permit us to hire a staff of suitable age to function properly in the Museum, and to retire, with a pension befitting their dignity as public servants and the Museum's own dignity as a public institution, those who can no longer serve.

'An Old Grammar Book' From the Chicago Tribune

Glancing through an old grammar book the other day, I came upon some terms redolent of my childhood. Do pupils today learn about gerunds and gerundives, predicate adjectives and predicate nouns, prepositional phrases and participial phrases, restrictive clauses and non-restrictive clauses, compound sentences and complex sentences, correlative conjunctions and co-ordinating conjunctions, demonstrative adjectives and demonstrative pronouns — and of course the figures of speech: simile, metaphor, metonymy, synecdoche, litotes, and all the others?

Perhaps it wasn't a bad way to learn the language. Joseph C. Ryan

Between Book Ends More Light on Defense Problem

THE QUESTION OF NATIONAL DEFENSE, by Oskar Morgenstern. (Random House, 306 pgs., $3.95.)

Well within the memory of the writer most books dealing with the art and science of war were by professional military men. Now civilians have all but preempted this field. This is a fact of some significance. It emphasizes the change, due to modern weapons, which we forsee in the impact of war. No longer can civilians remain secure in their homes while uniformed forces man the ramparts. In tomorrow's war every man, woman and child in the United States faces privation and death. It is natural that civilians should be concerned. It is also urgent that the best brains, military and civilian, be brought to bear upon the problems of survival.

Reviewed in this column recently was Dr. Bernard Brodie's "Strategy in the Missile Age." Now comes Dr. Oskar Morgenstern, professor of economics at Princeton University and advisor to Congressional committees and government agencies, with a parallel study of our military policies and preparations.

The two authors agree on the magnitude and imminence of the threat which hangs over us. They agree also that the only adequate defense is a retaliatory capability which will deter aggression by guaranteeing that, whatever happens, the aggressor will be destroyed. They do not agree on how this result is to be accomplished.

Dr. Brodie advocates a strengthened Strategic Air Command protected by hardened bases invulnerable to hostile attack. Dr. Morgenstern argues that it is not only impossible to harden land bases sufficiently to insure their survival under the blows of modern weapons; but that to attempt to do so will surely draw greater destruction on the civilian population.

"The harder the base the heavier will be the attack. Bases, which are legitimate targets, cannot be attacked effectively with modern weapons without the nearby cities and their populations being destroyed also. This objection applies with even more force in the territories of our allies and accounts in great part for the grudging consent or outright opposition to SAC and missile bases abroad."

Dr. Morgenstern believes that we should switch a large part of our retaliatory capability to an "oceanic force" consisting of a large fleet of nuclear powered submarines armed with the Navy's Polaris missile. The Polaris can be fired from a submerged position and its present range of 1500 miles, sufficient to reach virtually any target in Russia, can, says Dr. Morgenstern, be substantially increased.

He points out that a fleet of nuclear submarines cruising on random courses would afford no fixed target to the enemy. He believes that, in the near future the submarine fleet should be supplemented by a force of nuclear seaplanes which likewise would require no fixed shore installations and whose safety would depend on their world wide dispersal.

In Dr. Morgenstern's opinion his "oceanic system" is within our present scientific, engineering and financial capabilities. He believes that it would constitute an invulnerable retaliatory force capable of inflicting such punishment on an aggressor that the chance of nuclear warfare would be substantially reduced; possibly to the vanishing point.

Dr. Morgenstern's book may not answer all of today's pressing military problems. But, like Dr. Brodie, he throws welcome light upon them.

GEZA ANDA DISPLAYS A BEAUTIFUL TONE

By THOMAS B. SHERMAN

Geza Anda, the Hungarian pianist, combined grace and vivacity in an effective performance of Beethoven's C. Major Piano Concerto with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra yesterday afternoon. Edouard Van Remoortel conducted the concert in the Khorassan Room of the Chase Hotel.

Though this auditorium is not favorable to the best production of sound, Mr. Anda managed to make it clear that one of his important assets is a beautiful tone. An excellent quality of sound was apparent at all speeds and degrees of volume, but it was the way he used it in legato passages, in connecting phrases and in making each phrase alive and supple that gave his performance its artistic distinction. The soloist gave a predominantly lyrical feeling to the work. In fact, it had much the same style as if it had been a Mozart concerto, which meant, of course, that it had plenty of animation in the first and third movements. So far as manual control was concerned, the execution was perfect.

Conductor Van Remoortel also managed to surmount the acoustical handicaps of the auditorium in presenting a full-bodied, cohesive performance of the Brahms First Symphony. No one expects an apocalyptic revelation every time one of the great symphonies is played. It is quite enough to feel that one has met an old friend who seems to be much the same as ever and it may be too much perhaps if alterations turn out to be mere oddities. In the performance yesterday afternoon the music was broad, noble and tenderhearted, as it should be. I believe the final movement would have been more satisfactory if Mr. Van Remoortel had taken the first extrance of the chorale theme more slowly, thereby emphasizing its breadth and providing a stronger contrast with its accelerated repetition later on.

The third work on the program was Stravinsky's reconstruction of the "Pulcinella" suite from the original by Pergolesi. As played by a reduced orchestra it sounded too thin. It needs a virtuoso performance in a small auditorium anyhow if Pergolesi's faded charm and Stravinsky's hobbledehoy humor are to be appreciated.

The audience reacted favorably to the whole concert and was especially enthusiastic about the Brahms symphony. The program will be repeated tonight at Kiel Auditorium.

Rep. Durham to Retire.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP)—Representative Carl T. Durham (Dem.), North Carolina, who helped shape this country's policies on atomic energy, announced yesterday that he is retiring from Congress after next year. He has served 21 years in the House. Durham, 67 years old, told newsmen, "The time comes when you have to step down. I've seen too many hang around until they were decrepit."

STRING ENSEMBLE OPENS THIRD YEAR

By MANUS SASONKIN

As a performing institution, the St. Louis String Ensemble is still in its infancy. Last night, at the City Art Museum, it began its third year of life, a not at all uneventful life at that.

For, since it last performed in public, the Ensemble has changed not only its residence hall but its conductor and a considerable number of its players as well, and such shocks are bound to have their effect on the collective nervous system of the group.

Even without considering the non-professional status of the Ensemble, one can only marvel that the shock effect is as slight as, indeed, it seemed last night.

Under the direction of Max Steindel, the newly appointed conductor, the Ensemble has got into its stride with a minimum of evident discomfort. While it would be an exaggeration to describe the concert as highly polished, it would be fearfully unreasonable to expect such polish so early in what is not only a new season, but—in effect—a new life.

However, I am particularly hopeful for the future, partly because Mr. Steindel, as a violoncellist himself, understands string instruments and is in a position to bring out the best in his players; but, even more, because Mr. Steindel's enthusiasm is infectious and communicative, and communication is 90 per cent of performance.

Last night Mr. Steindel appeared a trifle nervous, but I have no doubt that, as the season progresses, he will become more relaxed, and so will the performances of his Ensemble.

The program which he selected for last night was imaginative and cosmopolitan, if not especially noteworthy. A Concerto Grosso of Marcello represented the Eighteenth Century; all other music stemmed from composers who have spent all or part of their lives in the Twentieth.

The most familiar offerings were Barber's Adagio for Strings, and Vaughn Williams's Fantasia on "Greensleeves," the latter featuring Laura Marriott, harpist, and Barbara Cook, flutist, both of whom were displayed to advantage.

Miss Marriott also performed an Aria in Classic Style for Harp and String Orchestra by Marcel Grandjany. Mr. Grandjany is a harpist and pedagogue, and he writes knowingly for his instrument.

Unhappily, the music had all been written before—mostly by Handel—a circumstance which prevented one from taking it too seriously.

News of the Churches in the St. Louis Area

THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICES PLANNED

By JOHN T. STEWART
Church Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Thanksgiving day, Thursday, will be observed by many St. Louis churches with special services of worship. Many Protestant churches will unite for community services.

For the twenty-fifth time four churches in the Grand-Shaw area will unite in a Thanksgiving day service, which will be held at 10 a.m. at Tyler Place Presbyterian Church, Spring avenue and Russell boulevard. Other churches taking part are Shaw Avenue Methodist, Compton Heights Baptist and Compton Heights Christian. The sermon will be given by the Rev. David Bunch, pastor of Compton Heights Baptist Church.

Jewish Service—The St. Louis Rabbinical Association will sponsor a Thanksgiving service at United Hebrew Temple, 225 South Skinker boulevard, at 11 a.m. The guest speaker will be Dr. Abraham Cronbach, professor emeritus of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, Cincinnati.

Christ Church Cathedral — Christ Church Cathedral, Thirteenth and Locust streets, will have holy communion at 8 a.m., and a service of Thanksgiving at 11 a.m. The preacher at the later service will be the Rev. Warren H. Deane, assistant rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church Webster Groves.

Masses at Cathedral.

St. Louis Cathedral, Lindell boulevard and Newstead avenue, will have Thanksgiving day masses at 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 a.m.

Baptist Service—The 92 Baptist churches of the St. Louis Baptist Association will hold their Thanksgiving service at Third Baptist Church, Grand and Washington boulevards, at 9:45 a.m. The Rev. Wallace Jones, pastor of Fee Fee Baptist Church, will be the speaker. An offering will be taken for the Missouri Baptist Children's Home. College students who still are under the care of the home will sing.

Union Avenue Group — The Union Avenue Association of Churches will hold its annual service at Union Avenue Christian Church, 733 Union boulevard, at 10:30 a.m. Other churches joining the service are Pilgrim Congregational, Westminster Presbyterian and Parrish Temple. The sermon will be given by the Rev. Dr. Ray E. Phillips of Pilgrim Church.

University Methodist Service.

West End Service—A group of churches in west St. Louis will hold a Thanksgiving day service at University Methodist Church, Washington and Trinity avenues, University City, at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. Dr. J. Francis Sant, rector of Church of St. Michael and St. George, will preach the sermon.

Northwest St. Louis—A community service will be held at Asbury Methodist Church, Maffitt and Warne avenues, at 10 a.m. The Rev. Dr. Elmer H. Hoefer, pastor of St. Peter's Evangical and Reformed Church, will deliver the sermon.

Wellston area—A neighborhood Thanksgiving service will be held at Mount Auburn Methodist Church, Hodiamont and Wabada avenues, Wednesday at 8 p.m. The preacher will be the Rev. Dr. Harry P. Phillips of West Presbyterian Church.

Kirkwood Service—The Ministerial Alliance of Kirkwood will sponsor a service at Kirkwood Baptist Church, 211 North Woodlawn avenue, at 10 a.m. The Rev. Val B. Strader, pastor of Kirkwood Methodist Church, will give the sermon.

Sermon at Centenary.

Centenary Methodist Church, Sixteenth and Pine streets, will hold its traditional service at 10:30 a.m. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. John H. Crowe, will preach the sermon.

Christian Science — All Christian Science Churches will have Thanksgiving day services at 11 a.m.

Lutheran Churches — All Lutheran churches of the Missouri Synod in St. Louis will hold Thanksgiving services. Nearly all will be Thursday, but a few have been announced for Wednesday evening.

Southwest Service — Seven churches in southwest St. Louis will hold a community Thanksgiving service Wednesday, 8 p.m., at Watson Terrace Christian Church, 4205 Watson road. The Rev. Milton E. Parks of Fry Memorial Methodist Church will preach the sermon.

C.W.S. Ships Powdered Milk.

Church World Service reports that of 346,000,000 pounds of surplus food it distributed abroad in 1958, a total of 78,366,680 pounds was of powdered milk.

New Pastor

THE REV. SAMUEL W. JENSEN, who is the new pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church of south St. Louis county. He came from First Lutheran Church, South Sioux City, Nebr. The Rev. Mr. Jensen is a graduate of the University of Chicago and Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary. Holy Trinity, United Lutheran, is building a new church at Union and Reavis Barracks roads.

VICAR RESIGNS, TAKES MAINE CALL

The Rev. Robert Black has resigned as vicar of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church to accept a call to become rector of Church of the Good Shepherd, Houlton, Me. His last service here will be on Sunday, Nov. 29.

St. Matthew's parish, which was organized in 1957, is building a church on North Bennett avenue in Warson Woods. Services now are being held at North Glendale School. Various clergymen from the Missouri Diocese will serve the parish until a new pastor is called.

Bishop George L. Cadigan has appointed the Rev. John Putney as priest-in-charge of Prince of Peace Church, Baden. He will also continue as vicar of St. Andrew's Church, Normandy.

At Prince of Peace Church, the Rev. Mr. Putney succeeds the Rev. Wilbur Tyte, who resigned to devote full time to St. Francis Mission, north St. Louis county. The Rev. Moss Armistead will assist at Prince of Peace Church.

The Rev. Benjamin Harrison has resigned as vicar of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Mexico, Mo., to become assistant minister of St. Luke's Church, Dallas, Tex. He is a former organist of Church of the Ascension, St. Louis.

DORN ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF CHURCH FEDERATION

Lawrence J. Dorn, who has been director of finance of the Metropolitan Church Federation since 1951, has been promoted to associate director of the interchurch body. In the absence of the executive director, the Rev. Dr. O. Walter Wagner, Dorn will act as director.

Dorn's promotion was voted unanimously by the federation's executive board. The action was recommended by the personnel commission.

Dorn will continue to serve as director of finance, with special responsibility for the budget. He will also serve as public relations officer, and as liaison officer with various commissions and committees of the federation.

Catholic Layman Lends Hand To Protestant Charity Band

The story of how a St. Louis Catholic layman has been helping a Protestant charity is told in the current issue of "Voice of the Valley," monthly publication of the Missouri Valley Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Gregory Lawler is the layman, and the Women's Guild of Ebenezer Church, Augusta, in St. Charles county, is the Protestant group.

This fall, as the result of the combined efforts of Lawler and the Women's Guild, the basement of Emmaus Home at Marthasville, Mo., is heavily stocked with jars of canned apples.

"For the past few years," Voice of the Valley reports, "Lawler has been watching the apple crop on some of the large estates in Ladue, and when the apples are ripe, he makes the necessary arrangements for the Women's Guild to pick up the unused ones. This year, working nearly all day with Lawler's help, the women brought home two pick-up truck loads of nice apples."

The canning was done on a Monday at Ebenezer Church. Senior citizens of the community operated four apple-peelers. Women of the church and town divided into two groups—one group sliced the apples and the other did the canning and sealing.

"Finally, at 11 p.m." the church paper states, "the last jar was sealed, the last pot and pan washed. The final tally, 892 quarts of apples canned and ready for delivery in one day. Forty-five men and women had donated their time."

Two weeks later, 25 members of the Women's Guild of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Defiance, made 32 gallons of apple butter for Emmaus Home. Defiance, like Augusta, is on the Missouri river, in St. Charles county.

Emmaus Home, Marthasville, like another institution with the same name at St. Charles, Mo., cares for mentally handicapped persons. Both are supported by the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

RED PRINTS CATHOLIC PAPER

PUNO, Peru (AP)—The Roman Catholic mission newspaper in Puno is printed by a Communist. He owns the only printing press in town.

The Rev. Vincent T. Mallon, a Maryknoll missioner from Brooklyn, says he has to scan copies of La Voz closely for typographical errors.

"In a recent story on Communism," says Father Mallon, "the printer twice set type to read, 'It is licit to vote for Communists,' instead of 'It is illicit'."

BISHOP HOLT WILL HELP DEDICATE SHRINE IN EUROPE

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt will fly to Geneva, Switzerland, Monday for a meeting of the board of directors of the World Council of Churches. He will represent the Methodist World Council at a special conference of W. C. C. with leaders of other international church bodies.

From Geneva, Bishop Holt will go to England to take part in the dedication of a Methodist shrine, the cottage at Handsworth, Staffordshire, where Bishop Francis Asbury was born in 1745.

Francis Asbury came to America in 1771 and was the first bishop of the Methodist Church consecrated in the United States. There were fewer than 400 Methodists in the colonies when Asbury arrived here. At the time of his death in 1816 there were 214,000 Methodists in the United States, with 2000 ministers.

Bishop Holt will return home early in December. He was bishop of Methodist churches in Missouri from 1944 to 1956, when he retired.

Ferrari Gains Starting Job as Hawks Squeak by Warriors

Detroit At Kiel Tonight

Al Ferrari will be in the starting lineup tonight when the Hawks engage the Detroit Pistons at Kiel Auditorium, and he'll be wearing the same pair of white sneakers he wore on the merry plane ride home from Philadelphia.

Last night at Philadelphia Ferrari started his first game this season and, in the words of Coach Ed Macauley, "It was probably the best game he's ever played as a Hawk." St. Louis squeaked to a 118-117 decision over the Warriors.

Actually it was a Bob Pettit jump shot with 35 seconds remaining that provided the victory margin. However, Ferrari supplied a lot of the spark and drive in the Hawk's triumph.

And nobody was more ready to agree to that than Macauley.

23 Points by Ferrari.

"Muggsy won himself a job tonight," Easy Ed said. "He gave me 43 minutes of solid basketball before fouling out."

"Look at this," Macauley said, pointing a finger at Ferrari's line in the box score: 7 field goals in 14 shots; 9 for 10 from the foul line; 7 rebounds; 6 assists; 23 points.

Ferrari was pleased to hear that Macauley thought kindly of his performance, but his happiness was tempered a bit when he discovered that his shoes and $5 had been stolen during the game. Thus, Al looked like a tall version of Pat Boone as he left Convention Hall wearing his white sneakers. Jack McMahon and Slater Martin also lost about $12 between them to the thief.

While the players took inventory to ascertain if anyone else had been robbed, Macauley turned in Pettit's direction and smiled.

"Bobby really came through, too," Macauley commented. "He may not win the scoring title—I wouldn't bet against it though—but he gets the points when we need them. And we needed that one.

"How about us beating them at the foul line? They had eight more field goals. I heard the Warriors were bad foul shooters, but we've had plenty of trouble there, too. If you had told me before the game we would make 36 for 44, I wouldn't have believed you."

Pettit finished with 28 points to lead the Hawks.

Other Heroes for Hawks.

Macauley also had some words of praise for Slater Martin, Cliff Hagan and Clyde Lovellette.

Hagan, in addition to his 25 points, had 15 rebounds and five assists. Martin had the Hawks running like scared rabbits in the first two periods and set up at least 10 field goals. And Lovellette stuck close enough to Wilt Chamberlain, to hold the 7-feet-1 giant with the 37-point average to a season low of 24.

And just about everything they did was needed for the Hawks to stave off the Warriors. The Warriors were trailing 47-23 early in the second period and fought back to tie and momentarily go ahead, thanks mainly to Paul Arizin, who poured in 19 field goals and six free throws for 44 points and his greatest offensive night as a pro.

But in the final analysis, the Hawks' brilliant first-period running attack which built up a 35-19 lead, and the Warriors poor shooting from the foul line—19 for 38—were the biggest factors in the fifth victory in nine starts for St. Louis.

With Lovellette, Pettit and Ferrari setting the pace, the Hawks rolled to a 55-31 lead with five minutes and 21 seconds to play in the second quarter. The Warriors then rallied to cut the deficit to 58-51 at the half. Philadelphia evened the count at 69-69 early in the third period and it was a close contest down to Pettit's deciding shot from 25 feet out.

"That game took a lot of basketball by the Hawks," said Macauley. "Maybe it's just what we needed to shake loose from our on-again, off-again form. I hope so, anyway."

Lloyd Lost to Pistons.

The Pistons have lost their No. 1 relief man, Earl Lloyd, because of a sprained ligament in his right leg. He will miss tonight's game with the Hawks at Kiel.

Tennis Rankings Meeting Tomorrow

Meetings of the United States Lawn Tennis Association's administrative committee were scheduled all day today at the Park Plaza Hotel. A dinner is slated tonight, with St. Louis District personnel invited.

The National rankings committee will meet tomorrow morning, at which time the top men players are likely to be rated. However, an announcement of the United States rankings is not likely to be made, nor approved, until the annual meeting of the U.S.L.T.A. in January.

Crushed Crusaders After First Loss

—By a Post-Dispatch Photographer.

Belleville Cathedral High players provide a study in dejection as the team trudges off Parsons Field in East St. Louis following a 24-14 defeat by Assumption last night. The Crusaders previously had been unbeaten and untied. The four in the front are TOM CLENNONS (73), RICH BATTAGLIA (63), TOM GILL (50) and FRED NEUTZEL (66).

Hey! Duck Hunters!

Fair and warm weather has moved in over the mid-Mississippi valley. Skies are clear over the entire Midwest with the exception of a few spots around the Great Lakes. Low temperatures were near the freezing point from northern Minnesota down to central Missouri and Illinois.

The snow cover in southern Canada ranges from 1 to 3 inches with a few spots reporting up to 6 inches. Fair weather will prevail over southern Canada today and some snow melting will take place.

Southerly winds will continue today and tonight over the Midwest and temperatures will rise to near the 60-degree mark over the weekend.

Assumption Ends Cathedral's Bid For Perfect Mark

By Bob Posen

Assumption High of East St. Louis played its familiar role of spoiler last night by cutting down Belleville Cathedral, 24-14, and blasting the Crusaders' hopes of an undefeated, untied football season.

After the first 13 minutes of the game at Parsons Field, it seemed the struggle would prove the adage that a good big man will beat a good little man. Assumption, outweighing the Crusaders nearly 30 pounds a man in the line, firmly carved a 12-0 lead, mostly with sheer power.

But lightweight Cathedral turned around and charged the seemingly helpless giants until the score was Belleville 14, Assumption 12, late in the third quarter.

Again the tide swung the other way. In a little more than five minutes the East St. Louis team stabbed for two more touchdowns, then held off the visitors without another serious threat.

The result meant that Ladue, which ended its season two weeks ago, will go into the records as the only undefeated, untied team in the St. Louis area this season.

Pioneers Finish 6-1-2.

Four weeks earlier, Assumption's Pioneers, with a 4-0-0 record themselves, tied Collinsville, 21-21, to wreck the Kahoks' perfect record. Last week Assumption and St. Louis U. High battled to a scoreless tie in the mud, keeping the Junior Billikens from an all-winning record.

So Assumption finished with a 6-1-2 mark, bowing only to East St. Louis, which steadily grew into one of the area's most powerful teams, 21-0. Cathedral's final record was 9-1-0.

High-scoring Mickey Thaxton scored Assumption's first three touchdowns, setting up the third one with a 47-yard bolt off tackle on the first scrimmage play after Cathedral took a 14-12 lead. The fourth TD was Dan Hopcus's 75-yard punt return in the opening minute of the fourth quarter.

The speedy Hopcus dashed 20 yards to a jam at the Assumption 45, spun out of trouble and had clear sailing the rest of the way. Hopcus halted the Crusaders' deepest penetration after that by intercepting a long pass at the Pioneer 22 and running it back 20 yards. It was Hopcus that his teammates hoisted with Coach George Martz to their shoulders after the game.

TD After 15-Yard Punt.

A Cathedral punt that went only 15 yards led to Assumption's first touchdown. Thaxton capped a 40-yard power drive with a change of pace, a five-yard end run while Belleville went for the fake up the middle. Glenn Bischof's 26-yard punt return and a 50-yard march made it 12-0, Thaxton going one payoff yard at the start of the second period.

The complexion of the game changed when Belleville's Dave Hasenstab raced 42 yards on a quarterback keep to the Assumption one-yard line. He broke away after bumping into another Cathedral player in the Pioneer secondary. His one-yard plunge and Paul Flach's extra point run made the half-time score 12-7.

Assumption remained impotent while the Crusaders, aided by four penalties, moved 76 yards to a third-quarter score. Rich Rujawitz, an outstanding runner all evening, covered the last few inches to give Cathedral the lead.

Then size began to tell again, starting with Thaxton's long lightning bolt. He came through four plays later on a clutch fourth-and-six situation from the Belleville nine, making seven yards around end. The Crusaders never recovered.

O'Fallon Wins No. 2 In Three Seasons

Coach Dick Keller's O'Fallon Tech football team won their second game in three seasons yesterday as the Hornets outscored Cahokia, 27-14, with Richard Bain and Leonard Scott leading the way.

Bain scored first and last for O'Fallon on runs of 31 and 89 yards. Bain's second T.D. came with but five seconds remaining in the game and on the first play from scrimmage following a Cahokia kickoff. Scott's two touchdowns were on runs of 20 yards.

Randy Mangrum tallied two T.D.s for Cahokia. Mangrum scored in the first quarter on a 23-yard run and in the fourth period on an 18-yard pass from Herb Rainbolt. Coach Keller's Hornets, who will have eight starters of this season's team returning next year, finished with a 2-7 record. Cahokia had a 3-6 mark.

Concordia Wins From Scott Five

Coach Pete Pederson's Concordia Seminary team opened the 1959-60 basketball season with a 71-66 victory over Scott Air Base last night at the Preachers' fieldhouse.

Joe Hauser (6-3) and Tom Faszholz (6-5) provided the winners with their principal scoring punch. Hauser, who holds the Concordia scoring record with a three-year average of 23.6 points a game, tallied 31 points on 14 baskets and three free throws. Faszholz, a scoring sensation for Fort Wayne (Ind.) Concordia last season, contributed 23 markers.

The Airmen set the pace for the greater part of the first half. With five minutes remaining to halftime, the Preachers rallied to gain a 40-36 lead.

Jack Anelli and Dick Vaughan were Scott's high scorers. Each made 17 points.

Concordia's eight-team tourney starts Wednesday night.

Max Baer, Ex-Heavy King, Dies

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Nov. 21 (UPI) — Former Heavyweight Champion Max Baer died today after suffering a heart attack while shaving in his hotel room. He was 50 years old.

He died in his hotel room before he could be removed to the nearby Hollywood Receiving Hospital. He called the hotel switchboard operator shortly after 8 a.m. to say he thought he had suffered a heart attack.

Baer won the heavyweight crown from Primo Carnera on June 14, 1934. After winning the title he did nothing except four-round exhibition matches for a full year. In his first major defense, June 13, 1935, he lost the title on a decision to James J. Braddock.

In his next bout, he was knocked out by the up-and-coming Joe Louis.

Baer was seen by the national television audience as recently as last Wednesday when he refereed the Zora Folley-Alonzo Johnson bout in Phoenix, Ariz.

U.S. Team Second in Cup Golf

MELBOURNE, Nov. 21 (AP) —Australia's Peter Thomson and Kel Nagle won the Canada Cup golf title by 10 strokes over the United States today, but Canada's Stan Leonard beat out Thomson in a dramatic extra hole playoff for the individual crown.

The second successive playoff in individual competition became necessary when Thomson and Leonard finished in a 72-hole tie at 275 after Thomson missed a 14-foot birdie putt on the final hole.

On the 424-yard extra hole both had good drives. Leonard left his approach shot 30 feet from pin. Thomson was wide about 25 feet. Leonard putted to within six inches for a par 5. Thomson chipped. The ball skimmed nine feet past the cup and his putt curled around cup's lip and stayed out.

Leonard won the individual crown in 1954 at Montreal, Canada, when Thomson and Nagle won the team crown for Australia.

Thomson 3-putted two holes on the final nine and scored 71, the first time he went over par during the tournament. Nagle registered 72 and the Australians wound up with 72-hole combined total of 563.

America's Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff, who dropped out of contention yesterday, climaxed their campaign with a pair of even par 70's to take second place from Canada with a 573. Canada had a 574 on a sparkling 70 by Leonard and a scrambling 77 by rangy Al Balding.

Snead was third in the individual standings with a 281 followed by South Africa's Gary Player at 284 and Nagle at 288. Middlecoff, never on his game, had 292.

Illinois Retriever Out of Title Meet

RENO, Nev., Nov. 21 (AP)—Three dogs were eliminated yesterday in the second day of the 1959 National retriever trials at Stead Ranch near here.

Braken's High Flyyer, owned by George Dukek, Fossil, Ore.; Maidscorner Paul, Stoneybroke Kennels, Ill., and Prairie Smoke, John Love, Sheridan, Wyo., were dropped.

The mortality will be far higher in today's trials for the 42 remaining state and regional champions. Officials estimate from 8 to 10 will be left in the final competition Sunday.

11 Dogs Eliminated In Trials

Eleven dogs, many considered title contenders, were eliminated in the first day's running of the national championship stake of the English Springer Spaniel field trials at Weldon Springs yesterday.

The remaining 31 dogs will resume competition today.

One of the top dogs eliminated was Jordieland Mickey of the Armour Kennels, Chicago. It flushed a bird while retrieving a dead one and was then out of the running.

Probably the best performance turned in was by Rivington Landmark, owned by Ken Hunter of Chicago and handled by Dave Lorenz. The dog had two excellent series, handling seven birds in the first one.

Bill Casper And Gustin Tied at 139

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 21 (AP) — Open Champion Bill Casper Jr. and former Masters titleholder Arnold Palmer appeared ready to take charge today in the third round of the Mobile Open golf tournament.

Casper was tied for the lead with young Jon Gustin, Gladwyne, Pa. Both had 71-68—139 cards for the opening two rounds.

Palmer was a stroke behind at 72-68—140. The Ligonier, Pa., pro was in a traffic jam with six others at that point.

Both appeared well on their games, especially the powerfully built Palmer who is making his second start after a 10-week layoff. The 1958 Masters champion hit every green of the Mobile Municipal course, a 6383-yard layout where par is 36-36—72.

$8,000,000 to Improve Chicago Race Tracks

CHICAGO, Nov. 21 (UPI)—An $8,000,000 expansion program has been scheduled for Arlington and Washington race tracks.

Benjamin Lindheimer executive secretary for both parks, said the major improvements include a 200-foot addition to the five-level, air-conditioned grandstand at Arlington and a 200-foot extension to Washington's three-story air conditioned clubhouse.

Falstaffs Roll 3163 In Tourney

By John J. Archibald
Of the Post-Dispatch Staff

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 21—The St. Louis Falstaff bowling team got off to an impressive start in the national team match game tournament here today with a three-game series of 3163. This total placed them third among 24 teams that had rolled the first of their four blocks of qualifying games.

The meet's early leader was the Walili team of Detroit with 3250. The Detroit Pfeiffers had 3172 for second place. The Rabens of St. Louis totaled 2860.

The individual scores for the Falstaffs were: Billy Welu, 653; Al Savas, 681; Glen Allison, 655; Harry Smith, 566; and Steve Nagy, 608.

Unless a team can score well enough in this weekend's dozen games to finish among the top four and thereby qualify for the match play of Monday and Tuesday, the season is almost certain to be regarded as something less than successful.

Two of the team that will bear most of the pressure are from St. Louis, the defending champion Budweisers and the titlists of the previous season the Falstaffs. A third St. Louis team is among those given a fair chance of reaching the finals, the Rabens, but this modestly sponsored club will be under little stress.

Each team will bowl to three-game blocks today and tomorrow. The scene of the tournament is Strachota's Milshore Bowl, a recently built 24-lane establishment.

18-Year-Old Girl Upsets Miss Bueno

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 21 (AP)—An 18-year-old New South Wales girl, Jan Lehane, rocketed into the world tennis spotlight today with an upset victory over world champion Maria Bueno of Brazil.

Playing in the semifinal of the New South Wales women's singles championship at White City, Miss Lehane won in three thrilling sets, 6-2, 4-6, 7-5.

Queensland Champion Roy Emerson entered the final of the men's singles with a thrilling five set win over Australian Davis Cupper Rod Laver. Emerson won the 105-minute match, 6-0, 3-6, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Miss Bueno later paired with Bob Howe to win a semifinal of the mixed doubles. They beat Martin Mulligan and Miss Mimi Arnold, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

Neal Fraser had an easy win in his semifinal beating Martin Mulligan, 6-3, 6-3, 6-0.

Clark Retains Lead

SAN JOSE, Calif., Nov. 21 (UPI) — Jimmy Clark, veteran Los Angeles golfer, clung to the lead in the $7500 Almaden Open yesterday with a 67-71—138, but a couple of national "big guns" were closing in on him. Bob Rosburg, National PGA champion, followed his opening day card of 72 with a four-under 68 for a 140 total and second place. Ken Venturi also shot 68 to move into fourth place at 142.

Miami Upsets Spartans

Curci's Play Is Highlight

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 21 (AP)—Miami's Hurricanes, a young but eager football team led by 152-pound Fran Curci, stood within one victory of an Orange Bowl berth today after an 18-13 upset of Michigan State last night.

By beating Florida in their final game next week, the Hurricanes can clinch an invitation to meet the Big Eight runner-up in the Miami Bowl New Year's day.

Michigan State's Big Ten co-leaders were in the running for the Rose Bowl, but their position was less hopeful. They'll go to Pasadena only if Northwestern and Wisconsin are beaten or tied in their closing games today.

Miami's victory over the Spartans heightened Curci's All-America chances. The little field general directed his team beautifully and stirred a crowd of 40,870 with an exciting mixture of passes, runs and pitchouts from the option.

An 80-yard third quarter drive that put the game out of Michigan State's reach at 18-6 was almost a one-man show. Curci completed four straight passes for 48 yards, scored on a two-yard run, and passed for two extra points.

Miami took a 10-0 lead on a five-yard touchdown run by Frank Bouffard and a field goal by Al Dangel. Michigan State cut the margin to 10-6 on a nine-yard touchdown pass from Dean Look to Herb Adderley 12 seconds before halftime.

In the closing minutes of play, Gary Ballman raced 10 yards for the Spartans' last score after returning an intercepted pass 51 yards.

In other Friday night games, Furman swamped Davidson, 35-7 and College of Pacific downed San Jose State, 20-7.

Halfback Dick Bass, the nation's top ground gainer and scorer a year ago, tallied all three of COP's touchdowns against San Jose as he ended his collegiate grid career. They came on runs of 10 yards, nine and three.

Quarterback Ben Canty threw two touchdown passes for Furman in its Southern Conference triumph over Davidson.

There are crucial games scattered all over the country today with bowl bids and conference championships hanging in the balance.

Washington will become the host team in the Rose Bowl if the Huskies defeat Washington State.

The Big 10 team for the Rose Bowl also could be decided. Wisconsin, Northwestern and Michigan State all are tied at 4-2. Wisconsin plays Minnesota and Northwestern tangles with Illinois. Michigan State has finished its league season.

Clemson can nail down the Atlantic Coast Conference crown by beating Wake Forest.

In the Big Eight, Kansas, Missouri and Iowa State all are tied for second behind Oklahoma. The second-place team will go to the Orange Bowl since Oklahoma can't return. The Sooners can knock Iowa State out of contention, while Kansas and Missouri battle.

Louisiana State plays Tulane and a victory will give it a spot in the Sugar or Blue Bonnett bowl.

Arkansas, committed to the Gator Bowl if it doesn't get the host spot in the Cotton Bowl, tackles Texas Tech.

D'Amato Arrested Trial Set Dec. 14 On Subpena Charge

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (UPI)—Cus D'Amato, manager of former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, was arrested yesterday on charges of failing to answer a subpena.

D'Amato surrendered at the offices of his attorneys, was booked at a police station and then arraigned in special sessions court. Justice Joseph V. Loscalzo released him in $2500 bail and set Dec. 14 for trial. D'Amato's arrest was ordered Wednesday after he failed to appear for the state attorney general's investigation into the promotion of the last June's Patterson-Ingemar Johansson title fight.

The New York State Athletic Commission announced its decisions in the cases of D'Amato and Promoter Bill Rosensohn would be made public Monday. Hearings were finished last week. D'Amato was charged with being undercover manager and an associate of undersirable characters. Rosensohn was charged with failure to report stock transfers and changes of officers in his promotion corporation and with consorting with undesirables.

Inter-League Trading Opens With 2 Deals

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (UPI) — Baseball's inter-league trading period opened today far more mildly than anticipated with a pair of deals that aren't exactly calculated to affect either the American or National League standings next year.

The Boston Red Sox sent First Baseman Dick Gernert to the Chicago Cubs for Pitcher Dave Hillman and First Baseman Jim Marshall, and the Kansas City Athletics gave up Catcher Frank House to the Cincinnati Reds for Pitcher Tom Acker.

Most baseball officials, however, still were sitting back and waiting for the so-called "log-jam" to break, explaining they have ample time to deal during this unprecedented inter-league trading period which extends until Dec. 15.

There were a few other moves around the majors yesterday.

Kansas City hired Freddie Fitzsimmons as its pitching coach to replace Johnny Sain, who quit that job late in the season. Fitzsimmons, one-time manager of the Phillies, was pitching coach for the Cubs the past three seasons.

The Washington Senators shook up their scouting staff, dropping Rollie Hamsley and Pete Suder along with six others, and reassigning Coach Walter (Boom Boom) Beck to scouting duties in the Indiana-Illinois area.

Toweel, Down Twice, Wins Fight

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Willie Toweel can come back any time. The former British Empire lightweight champ from Johannesburg, South Africa, made a hit last night in winning a split 10-round decision over Philadelphia's Len Matthews.

It wasn't Toweel's victory that inspired the enthusiasm. In fact, there were many who thought Matthews deserved an edge. The thing that caught the crowd's fancy at Madison Square Garden was Willie's skill in avoiding a knockout after being knocked down twice in the eighth round. Under New York rules, it is an automatic TKO when a fighter is down three times in one round.

Matthews floored the clever Toweel with a left hook at the one-minute mark of the eighth. He scrambled up and took the eight-count on one knee. About a minute later he was down again, halfway through the ropes from a left-right-left barrage. Once again he took an eight-count.

With a full minute to go, Matthews shot the works. He hurt his man, who was wandering wearily at the bell, but he couldn't drop him again.

In the ninth, Toweel boxed his way out of trouble after a heavy body barrage. All night long he stuck an annoying jab in Matthews' face and kept dropping an overhand right to the jaw or bringing up a right uppercut to counter Len's furious advances.

Both Referee Harry Ebbets (5-4-1) and Judge Artie Aidala (6-3-1) voted for Toweel. Judge Ray Kozak had it 5-5 in rounds, but voted for Matthews on points, 9-5. The AP card was 5-4-1 for Toweel. The Ringside press was split down the middle, six for each man and all close.

Toweel weighed 139¼ pounds and Matthews 136½.

McBride Changes His Mind About Coaching Pro Team

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21 (AP)—Los Angeles' entry in the new American Professional Football League doesn't have a team or a ball park.

But it did have a coach—until yesterday.

General Manager Frank Leahy said Bob McBride has changed his mind about taking the head coaching job with the Los Angeles Chargers and that he released McBride from his agreement.

Leahy said the action was taken with deep regret on both sides.

Red Bud Wins 46-38 From Steeleville Five

Lee Bemick scored 23 points to pace Red Bud to a 46-38 triumph over the host Steeleville (Ill.) basketball team in a Charter Conference game last night. Steeleville has a 2-1 league record.

O'Fallon defeated Nashville in a league game, 68-63 on the winner's court. Bob Nave's 25 points took the O'Fallon scoring honors and two Nashville players, Jim Braly and Morris Finke, tied with 19 points each.

The Hillsboro (Mo.) five won a 67-58 game from St. Francis Borgia of Washington. Bob Smith paced Hillsboro with 21 points and Barry Lock tallied 22 for the losers.

Rose Bowl 'Ifs'

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21 (UPI)—Here is the Rose Bowl race situation in the West:

Washington can clinch the bid by beating Washington State.

If Washington loses and Oregon defeats Oregon State, then Oregon would be the choice.

If both Washington and Oregon lose, Washington would win the New Year's day assignment.

If both Washington and Oregon win, Washington still would get the date.

Both Oregon and Washington go into their final games with 8-1 records.

U.S.C., the logical choice for the assignment, is negligible due to an N.C.C.A. ban.

ALDERMEN OK RIGHT-OF-WAY CONDEMNATION

The Board of Aldermen passed a bill today authorizing the condemnation of the Public Service Co.'s University streetcar right of way from DeBaliviere avenue west to the city limits.

Together with the abandoned Rock Island Railroad right of way which parallels the Public Service Co. property, the condemnation authorized yesterday would give the city a 90-foot right of way for its proposed Rock Island Expressway.

Work is under way on overpasses for the expressway in Forest Park. It would link Millbrook boulevard at Skinker boulevard with Forest Park boulevard at Kingshighway.

The board also appropriated $500,000 from 1955 bond issue funds for four street widenings. These include two sections of Jefferson avenue between Cass and Natural Bridge avenues and between Scott avenue and Market street.

The other widenings are on Spring avenue from Olive street to Page boulevard, on Fourteenth street from Olive to Mullanphy street.

Commuter Study.

In another action, the board adopted a resolution setting up a special aldermanic committee to investigate the feasibility of using the downtown tunnel for rail commuter service.

Alderman Carl Gassel (Dem.), First Ward, author of the resolution, said new conditions making the proposal more practical than in the past included the existence of available trackage at Union Station and adjacent yards.

This new trackage resulted from the discontinuance of many passenger trains that formerly used Union Station, he explained.

Alderman Joseph B. McDonald (Rep.), Twenty-fifth Ward, supported the resolution. He said he had learned of several recent studies indicating that the tunnel could be used for commuter trains. He added that this would be especially useful for Illinoisans working in St. Louis.

The tunnel starts at the western approach of Eads Bridge and follows a generally southwest course to emerge at Eighth and Spruce streets. Earlier studies had cast serious doubts on the practicality of the scheme.

Gassel was named chairman of the special committee. Other members are Aldermen Archie Blaine (Dem.), Sixth Ward; George Grellner (Rep.), Thirteenth; A. Barney Mueller (Dem.), Twenty-first; Raymond Leisure (Dem.), Seventh; James W. Noonan (Dem.), Third, and Wayland F. Smith Jr. (Dem.), Eighteenth.

Pedestrian Rights.

A bill that would clarify the rights and duties of pedestrians in crosswalks was introduced by Alderman Smith, who said he was concerned about the number of pedestrian deaths recently.

Another bill enacted makes Cote Brilliante avenue a one-way street westbound between Kingshighway and Union boulevard.

from the utility and had defaulted on his payments on a deed of trust. The company foreclosed.

Bought the Day Before.

The weapon used in the killing, a .38 caliber P-38 pistol, was purchased the day before the shooting by Iaconetti.

Another pistol, a .32 caliber automatic Selecta, was turned over to University City Police yesterday by John Wilson, Mrs. Weir's brother. It is the weapon which Weir told his wife he had taken from "a tavern man" last spring.

Mrs. Weir found the pistol in a bedroom closet of the Weir home on Mosley road, Creve Coeur.

Capt. Walter Gorman, head of the University City detective bureau, said an attempt will be made to trace the weapon. Through his attorney, Iaconetti declared that he had never drawn a pistol on Weir before the Thursday shooting.

Memorial services for Weir were to be held today at Graham Memorial Chapel at Washington University. Weir was a graduate of the university and was active in alumni affairs.

Homicide Verdict.

A verdict of homicide was returned by a coroner's jury at an inquest into Weir's death yesterday. The jury found that Iaconetti fired the fatal shots and recommended that he be held for prosecution.

Iaconetti, sitting in a wheelchair, attended the inquest with his attorney, Ralph R. Giessow. The defendant, who was shot in the lower chest, was guarded by a deputy sheriff.

LIQUOR LICENSE OF TAVERN IS SUSPENDED FOR 10 DAYS

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 21—The liquor license of John Lukas Foundo, proprietor of a tavern at 1543 South Jefferson avenue in St. Louis, was suspended 10 days by Liquor Control Supervisor Hollis M. Ketchum yesterday for alleged sale after hours. The suspension will be effective Nov. 30.

Ketchum announced also the suspension of liquor or beer permits of eight Kansas City operators for various violations.

ROBERT KENNEDY HERE, ASKS FOR NEW LABOR LAWS

A need for additional national legislation in the field of labor union affairs was voiced here yesterday by Robert F. Kennedy, former chief counsel of the Senate Labor Rackets Committee.

Kennedy, who addressed a luncheon meeting of the Harvard Club at the Statler Hilton Hotel, said the legislation should be directed at further control of union pension and welfare funds and prevention of infiltration of union ranks by hoodlums.

In the committee's investigation of the Central Conference of the Teamsters Union, Kennedy said, it was found that James Hoffa, union, president, turned down the low bidder on a pension plan, saying the bidder was not qualified.

It became evident, however, that the low bidder had 50 times the assets of the company which ultimately was awarded the pension fund contract. That was a company whose officers are associated with Allen and Paul Dorfman, and with known Chicago racketeers, he said.

Kennedy said the Teamsters Union paid the agency with which the Dorfmans are associated $1,600,000 in excess of the regular fee. The reason was that Hoffa wanted to expand his influence in the union outside of the Detroit area, he added.

On Teamsters Union pension funds, he said that by 1965 there would be $250,000,000 in the funds, which Hoffa may use as he sees fit.

He suggested strict laws that would prohibit a union president from being able, legally, to use such a fund.

Citing other instances of Hoffa's alleged misuse of union funds, Kennedy said the union president lent $40,000 to a friend, who could not get a loan any other place because he had been arrested 22 times.

Kennedy mentioned the 1958 election of Harold J. Gibbons as president of Teamsters Joint Council 13 in St. Louis. Gibbons, right-hand man of Hoffa, "rigged the election," Kennedy said.

"A union infiltrated with gangsters and hoodlums will continue as long as Jimmy Hoffa is president," Kennedy said. "I don't expect him to be president very much longer."

world" but his first experience was about 10 or 12 years ago.

He said he stopped in to see a disk jockey at a a small station outside the city and was referred to the manager who pointed out "that we can't pay our men very much and you people will have to make up the difference."

Earlier in the week, two of the subcommittee investigators interviewed TV-star Dick Clark after it was reported the teen-age idol had agreed with an ABC directive to drop his outside business interests and concentrate on his nationally televised "American Bandstand" and the "Dick Clark Show" programs.

Cohn, who declined to mention any names, said that "Clark never took a penny" and that "if every disk jockey in this area was as clean as Dick Clark, I wouldn't have any problems."

National manufacturers' representatives, who occasionally worked out of Cohn's office, were shocked at the "payola" conditions in Philadelphia and described them as the worst in the country, the distributor said.

Cohn said the 20 record spinners in this city were all that he had come in contact with among the more than 600 in his territory.

The distributor said he did not quite understand when he was first asked by the disk jockeys, "how about some bread, man—we got to eat," but he said he soon learned.

Cohn said payments varied with each request.

"One asked for and was getting $100 a month per record until he told me that others were giving him up to $500," Cohn said.

Cohn said he had other arrangements "where for $75 per month, the D.J. would play six records per night and some music from some of my albums."

"Others might suggest payment in the form of a gift for a new baby, anniversary or birthday," Cohn said.

Another asked for "wall-to-wall carpeting for his home" and still another "joked" about furnishing a room, he said.

Cohn said his payments were always by check, except in one instance when the disc jockey insisted on cash.

REALTY MAN FINED IN TEST OF LAW ON 'FOR SALE' SIGNS

Gilbert W. Brine, a real estate dealer, was fined $200 yesterday in police court in a case to test the new city ordinance requiring that "For Sale" signs on real estate specify the zoning of the property.

Police testified that on Nov. 6 Brine had signs offering for sale two pieces of property at 3954 and 3959 Russell boulevard. Police said neither sign specified the "use zoning district" applicable to the properties. Police Judge Rodney Weiss fined Brine $100 on each count.

There was no defense testimony and an appeal was taken immediately. Brine maintains offices at 2110 South Thirty-ninth street.

BROWN SHOE CO., NEW YORK FIRM CANNOT MERGE

Brown Shoe Co. of St. Louis and G. R. Kinney Co., Inc., a shoe firm of New York, were denied the right to merge in an opinion issued yesterday by United States District Judge Randolph H. Weber.

The judge said such a merger would tend to create a monopoly and lessen competition in the shoe industry in violation of the Clayton anti-trust act. He said he would issue an injunction Dec. 1, restraining the two firms from merging.

A spokesman for Brown Shoe said company attorneys had not yet had the opportunity to see Judge Weber's conclusions and could not comment at this time. The case could be appealed to the United States Supreme Court.

The acquisition of Kinney's manufacturing and retailing facilities by Brown Shoe "would tend to create a monopoly" in the manufacturing and retailing of men's, women's and children's shoes "throughout the United States as a whole," Judge Weber said.

Brown Shoe operates 11 selling divisions trading with more than 18,000 retailers throughout the country. Sales last year totaled $239,903,704, with net earnings of $8,489,936.

The Kinney firm operated 442 retail stores and four factories last year. The company's net sales in 1954, the last year they were listed, totaled $46,903,961.

Action Begun in 1955.

Action against the two shoe companies was begun by the Government in 1955. The late United States District Judge Ruben M. Hulen issued an ex-parte temporary restraining order which permitted the merger plans to continue but specified that the two firms be operated separately and assets of the two companies be kept separate.

After Judge Hulen's death in 1956, the case remained on the court docket and was not brought to trial before Judge Weber until Aug. 24, 1958.

Meanwhile, the merger was approved by shareholders of Brown and Kinney on the basis of an exchange of two shares of Brown common stock for each three shares of Kinney.

In light of this, Judge Weber noted that should his judgment become final, Brown Shoe will be confronted with the necessity of disposing of Kinney common stock.

"This could have far-reaching effects and consequences," he said.

47-Page Conclusion.

Therefore the court will hold itself ready to hear any evidence that Kinney and Brown Shoe wish to offer "touching the effects of the disposition of the stock and a suitable manner in handling same," the judge said.

In his 47-page conclusion, based on facts presented in hearings, Judge Weber pointed out that in 1955 Brown Shoe was the fourth largest shoe manufacturer in the United States, accounting for 3.97 per cent of the nation's total production. Two years later, when it combined with Kinney, Brown became the third largest producer, manufacturing 5 per cent of the nation's total output.

The Clayton Act, he said, prohibits "any acquisition of stock or assets in any line of commerce in any section of the country where the effect may be substantially to lessen competition, or tend to create a monopoly."

SCOTT AIR BASE OFFICER KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

Capt. William G. Adams, a flight evaluation officer at Scott Air Force Base, Belleville, was killed when his T-33 jet trainer crashed in Puget Sound near Everett, Wash., an Air Force spokesman said today.

Capt. Adams was listed as missing after his plane disappeared Thursday night shortly after leaving Paine Air Force Base near Everett. Searchers found his body, pieces of his flying suit and debris from the plane in a 600-foot-deep area of Puget Sound.

Capt. Adams, 34 years old, left Scott Base on Monday in the jet trainer to conduct flight evaluations of personnel operating control towers and radar equipment at several Air Force bases. He had been in the Air Force for 14 years. He lived at 217 North Meyer street, Lebanon, with his wife, Mrs. Bonnie Jewell Adams.

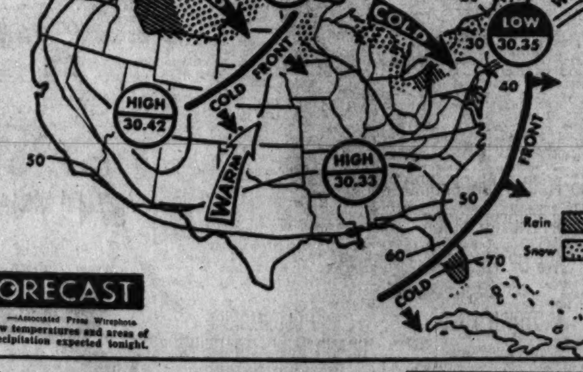
Mild Weather to Tarry



FORECAST
—Associated Press Wirephoto.
Low temperatures and areas of precipitation expected tonight.

Mild autumn weather is expected to continue in the St. Louis area through Monday, with relatively little change in temperature, the Weather Bureau said.

In contrast to dry weather here, rain drenched the Pacific Northwest for the fifth consecutive day today. Civil defense units began evacuating farm families from lowland areas northeast of Seattle, where the Homish river rose five feet above flood stage.

Cloudy skies were reported east of the Missisippi river, and along the northern tier of sttaes from the Pacific Northwest to the Great Lakes region through New England.

Rainfall amounts varied in the 24 hours ended early today, ranging form traces along the Easter Seaboard to 1.39 inches at Olympia, Wash., to 6.23 inches at Key West, Fla. Light snow fell from Wisconsin across the upper Great Lakes into lower Michigan.

Light rain was forecast for tomorrow in New England and southern Florida, with light snow over northern New England and Minnesota, as indicated by the above map. Some light snow and snow flurries mixed with rain are expected in the lower Great Lakes and northern Plains states.

Heating degree days in the St. Louis area yesterday, 21; the month, 493; the season, 751.

Leap to Fame

Air Force Capt. Joseph W. Kittinger Jr. hurtling groundward after stepping over side of balloon open gondola for a delayed parachute jump from 76,400 feet over New Mexico Monday. The leap from more than 14 miles up set a new record. Capt. Kittinger made a free fall for three minutes until his parachute opened at an altitude of 12,000 feet. This picture was made by a fixed camera in the gondola.

Time Running Out for a Buck

Dazed deer, a 200-pound buck, tied to a parking meter in downtown Minneapolis yesterday after it was hit by a car and a front leg was broken. The deer, thought to have been driven out of the woods by hunters, darted between moving cars for several blocks before it was hit. A warden destroyed the animal.

LAST DAY
JAN HENDRIKS
Stars with INGEBORG SCHONER in the great human drama of nudists and their fight to be understood. This is the finest motion picture made on the controversial practice of nudism. This film, in full EASTMAN COLOR, covers the subject thoroughly from the origins of the movement through modern-day practices. This amazingly revealing Swedish-made motion picture (spoken in English) was actually filmed in a nudist camp and clearly demonstrates the habits, practices, joys, sorrows, loves, passions, religions and fears of the nudists. Winner of several international awards, this great film is severely censored in many states (including Kansas and N.Y.) and completely banned in many others (including Wisconsin). For a once-in-a-lifetime experience and a realistic education, don't miss the complete and uncensored version of this outstanding film. (RECOMMENDED FOR ADULT AUDIENCES.)
'FORBIDDEN PARADISE'
(In Beautiful EASTMAN COLOR)

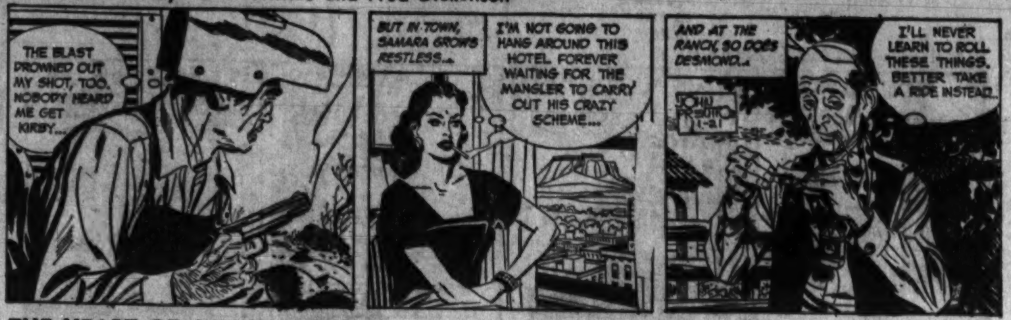
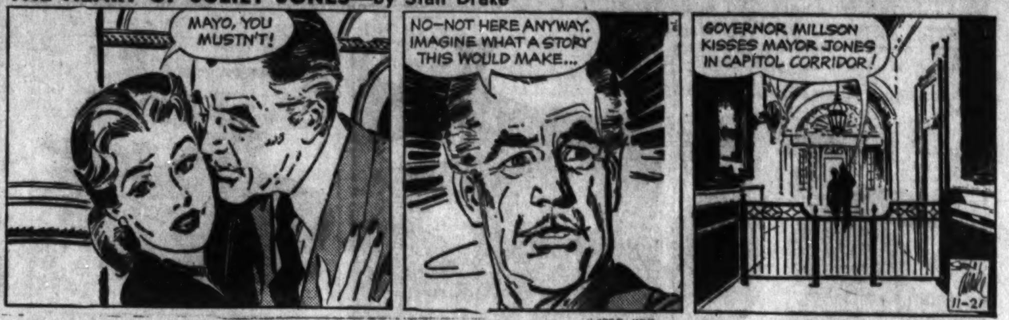
Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

RIP KIRBY—By John Prentice and Fred Dickenson



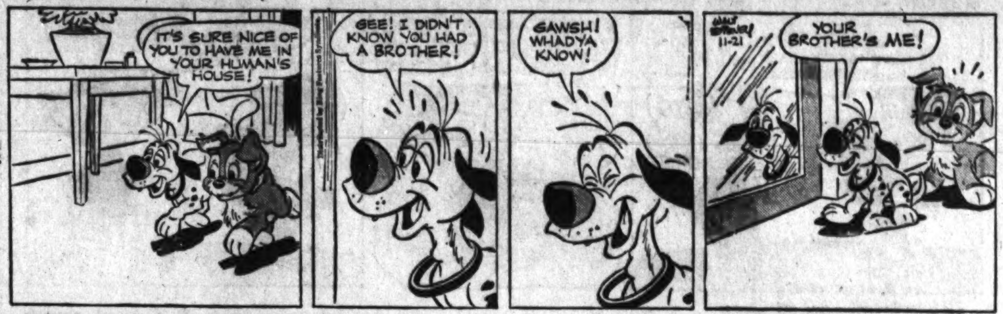
THE BLAST DROWNED OUT MY SHOT, TOO. NOBODY HEARD ME GET KIRBY...
BUT IN TOWN, SAMARA GROWS RESTLESS...
I'M NOT GOING TO HANG AROUND THIS HOTEL FOREVER WAITING FOR THE MANGLER TO CARRY OUT HIS CRAZY SCHEME...
AND AT THE RANCH, SO DOES DESMOND...
JOHN PRENTICE 11-21
I'LL NEVER LEARN TO ROLL THESE THINGS. BETTER TAKE A RIDE INSTEAD.

THE HEART OF JULIET JONES—By Stan Drake



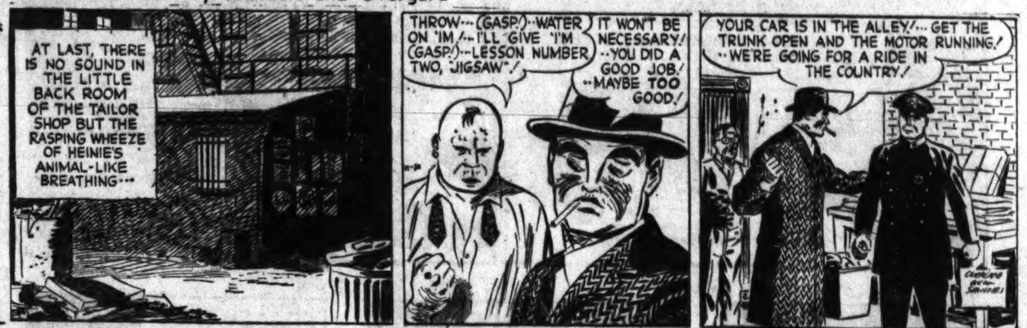
MAYO, YOU MUSTN'T!
NO—NOT HERE ANYWAY. IMAGINE WHAT A STORY THIS WOULD MAKE...
GOVERNOR MILLSON KISSES MAYOR JONES IN CAPITOL CORRIDOR!
Stan Drake 11-21

SCAMP—By Walt Disney



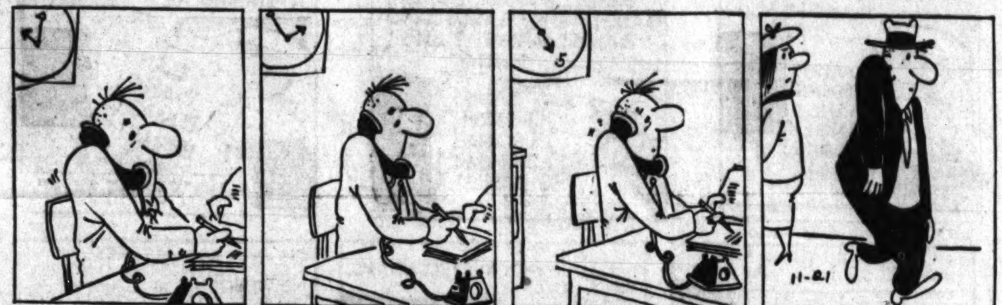
IT'S SURE NICE OF YOU TO HAVE ME IN YOUR HUMAN'S HOUSE!
GEE! I DIDN'T KNOW YOU HAD A BROTHER!
GAWSH! WHADYA KNOW!
WALT DISNEY 11-21
YOUR BROTHER'S ME!

STEVE ROPER—By Saunders and Overgard

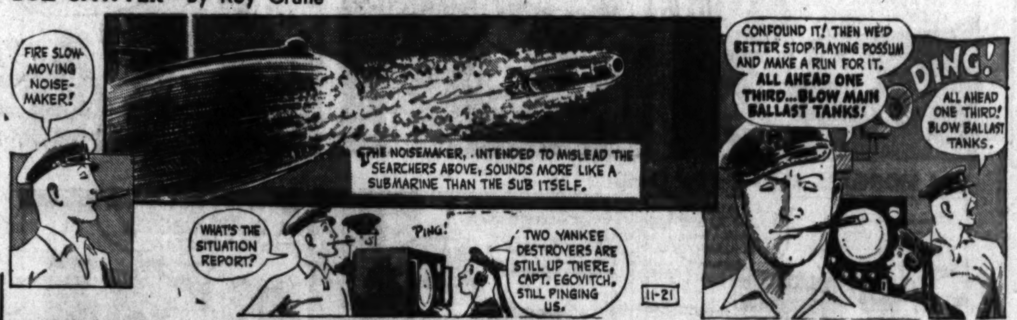


AT LAST, THERE IS NO SOUND IN THE LITTLE BACK ROOM OF THE TAILOR SHOP BUT THE RASPING WHEEZE OF HEINIE'S ANIMAL-LIKE BREATHING...
THROW--(GASP!)--WATER ON 'IM!--I'LL GIVE 'I'M (GASP!)--LESSON NUMBER TWO, 'JIGSAW'!
IT WON'T BE NECESSARY! --YOU DID A GOOD JOB! --MAYBE TOO GOOD!
YOUR CAR IS IN THE ALLEY!... GET THE TRUNK OPEN AND THE MOTOR RUNNING! --WE'RE GOING FOR A RIDE IN THE COUNTRY!

HERMAN—By Clyde Lamb

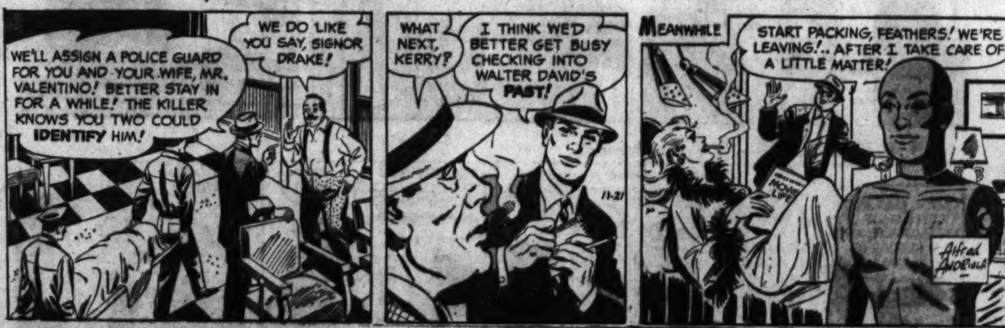


BUZ SAWYER—By Roy Crane



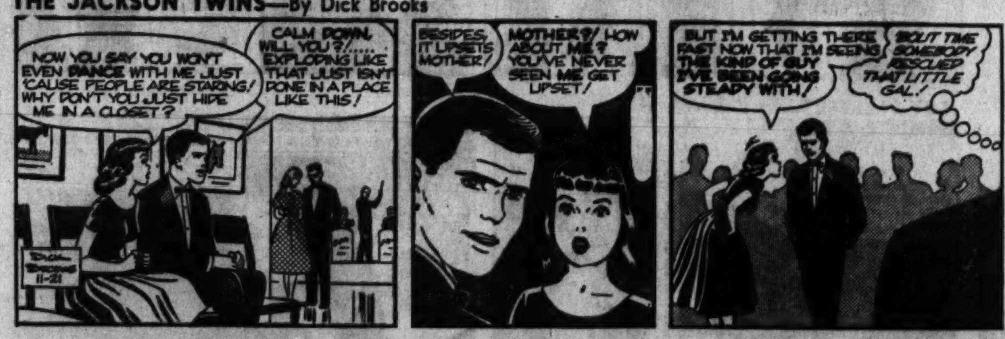
FIRE SLOW-MOVING NOISE-MAKER!
THE NOISEMAKER, INTENDED TO MISLEAD THE SEARCHERS ABOVE, SOUNDS MORE LIKE A SUBMARINE THAN THE SUB ITSELF.
WHAT'S THE SITUATION REPORT?
PING!
TWO YANKEE DESTROYERS ARE STILL UP THERE, CAPT. EGOVITCH, STILL PINGING US.
11-21
CONFOUND IT! THEN WE'D BETTER STOP PLAYING POSSUM AND MAKE A RUN FOR IT. ALL AHEAD ONE THIRD...BLOW MAIN BALLAST TANKS!
DING!
ALL AHEAD ONE THIRD! BLOW BALLAST TANKS.

KERRY DRAKE—By Alfred Andriola



WE'LL ASSIGN A POLICE GUARD FOR YOU AND YOUR WIFE, MR. VALENTINO! BETTER STAY IN FOR A WHILE! THE KILLER KNOWS YOU TWO COULD IDENTIFY HIM!
WE DO LIKE YOU SAY, SIGNOR DRAKE!
WHAT NEXT, KERRY?
I THINK WE'D BETTER GET BUSY CHECKING INTO WALTER DAVID'S PAST!
11-21
MEANWHILE
START PACKING, FEATHERS! WE'RE LEAVING!.. AFTER I TAKE CARE OF A LITTLE MATTER!
Alfred Andriola

THE JACKSON TWINS—By Dick Brooks



NOW YOU SAY YOU WON'T EVEN DANCE WITH ME JUST 'CAUSE PEOPLE ARE STARING! WHY DON'T YOU JUST HIDE ME IN A CLOSET?
CALM DOWN, WILL YOU?!...... EXPLODING LIKE THAT JUST ISN'T DONE IN A PLACE LIKE THIS!
DICK BROOKS 11-21
BESIDES, IT UPSETS MOTHER!
MOTHER?! HOW ABOUT ME?! YOU'VE NEVER SEEN ME GET UPSET!
BUT I'M GETTING THERE FAST NOW THAT I'M SEEING THE KIND OF GUY I'VE BEEN GOING STEADY WITH!

Previews of Tonight's Television Programs

SATURDAY'S top television shows as previewed and selected by TV Key's staff.

PERRY MASON—"The Case of the Golden Fraud." A blackmail and murder yarn that's up to this series' high average. Perry defends a very proper business man who is fooled by a potentially rich lady client. Opening scenes set a good pace and, later, in the court scenes, the D.A. looks as though he might win one. Good supporting performance from David Scheiner as a crooked TV repairman. 6:30 p.m., KMOX-TV.

GENE KELLY. (Special).—Lots of snap in this dance session with Kelly, Donald O'Connor and Carol Lawrence. Together, Kelly and O'Connor really score in a finger snap dance and a chair dance that are worth the show alone. There's also a big vaudeville sketch with the men and Carol Lawrence play;-ing a number of parts, a Spanish ballet by Kelly and Carol, Gene's solo to "Balling the Jack," and O'Connors dance to "After the Party." (Color). 7:30 p.m., NBC-TV.

LEAVE IT TO BEAVER.—"Beaver's Tree." Pleasant enough. After hearing his teacher read a poem about trees, Beaver suddenly discovers a deep love for a tree he left behind at his old house. Naturally, he goes back and uproots it without the new owner's permission. Some chuckles, but tonight's leading philosophical comment comes from wally in a message to Beaver: "You're just a kid . . . You ain't got no rights." 7:30 p.m., KTVI.

MR. LUCKY—"That Stands for Pool." Best show of the series. Lucky plays pool against a Chicago gambler for big bets and his life. The dialogue is amusing, the pool sequence neatly done, and Pippa Scott as Lucky's girl is a luscious sight. The real scene stealer, though, is portly Stanley Adams as the loud Chicago gambler. 8 p.m., KMOX-TV.

HAVE GUN WILL TRAVEL—Paladin's out in a dry desert valley trying to keep peace between ranchers who believe Indian gold is buried somewhere around. Paladin finds something better than gold in an elaborate tunnel scene, and makes all participants happy. 8:30 p.m., KMOX-TV.

GUNSMOKE—Other Westerns should take lessons. Not much shooting lately on this series. Tonight, Marshal Dillon doesn't even pull a gun as he listens to an old farmer who says his wife has left him. The pace is leisurely and the tale sympathetic—an incident, that's all. 9 p.m., KMOX—TV.

Uncle Ray's Column

Age of Wonders

By Ramon Coffman

FOURTEEN YEARS have passed since I wrote in this column:

"A camera sent up with a rocket would need to be automatic, and it would have to snap pictures very fast . . . possibly a rocket will circle the moon and come back to the earth some day. In that case, pictures might show us the landscape on the other side."

SOMETHING like that happened recently. A Russian rocket circled the moon and took pictures. A statement was issued quickly that photographs of the other side of the moon had been sent back to earth.

Only electrical waves could transmit pictures from the moon to the earth.

IN TIME TO COME, we may expect additional pictures of the moon to be made with cameras in rockets. We also should obtain close-range pictures of the surface of Mars and other planets.

Yes, we live in an age of wonders. With talking pictures, television, jet planes, artificial satellites and space rockets, we are going forward (in the present century) to points beyond the dreams of people who lived in the past.

Linoleum Tile

It's a good deal easier to apply linoleum or tile to a floor if you first remove the molding that fits between the baseboard and the floor. Run the new flooring up to the baseboard and when the molding is replaced, it will cover any rough edges of the flooring material.
